

The halloween films

Well, i've never been fond of a celebration of halloween, but i like related to this holiday films.

I usually watch different horror films that day, but they aren't typical ones. I watch old, ironic and very bad ones.

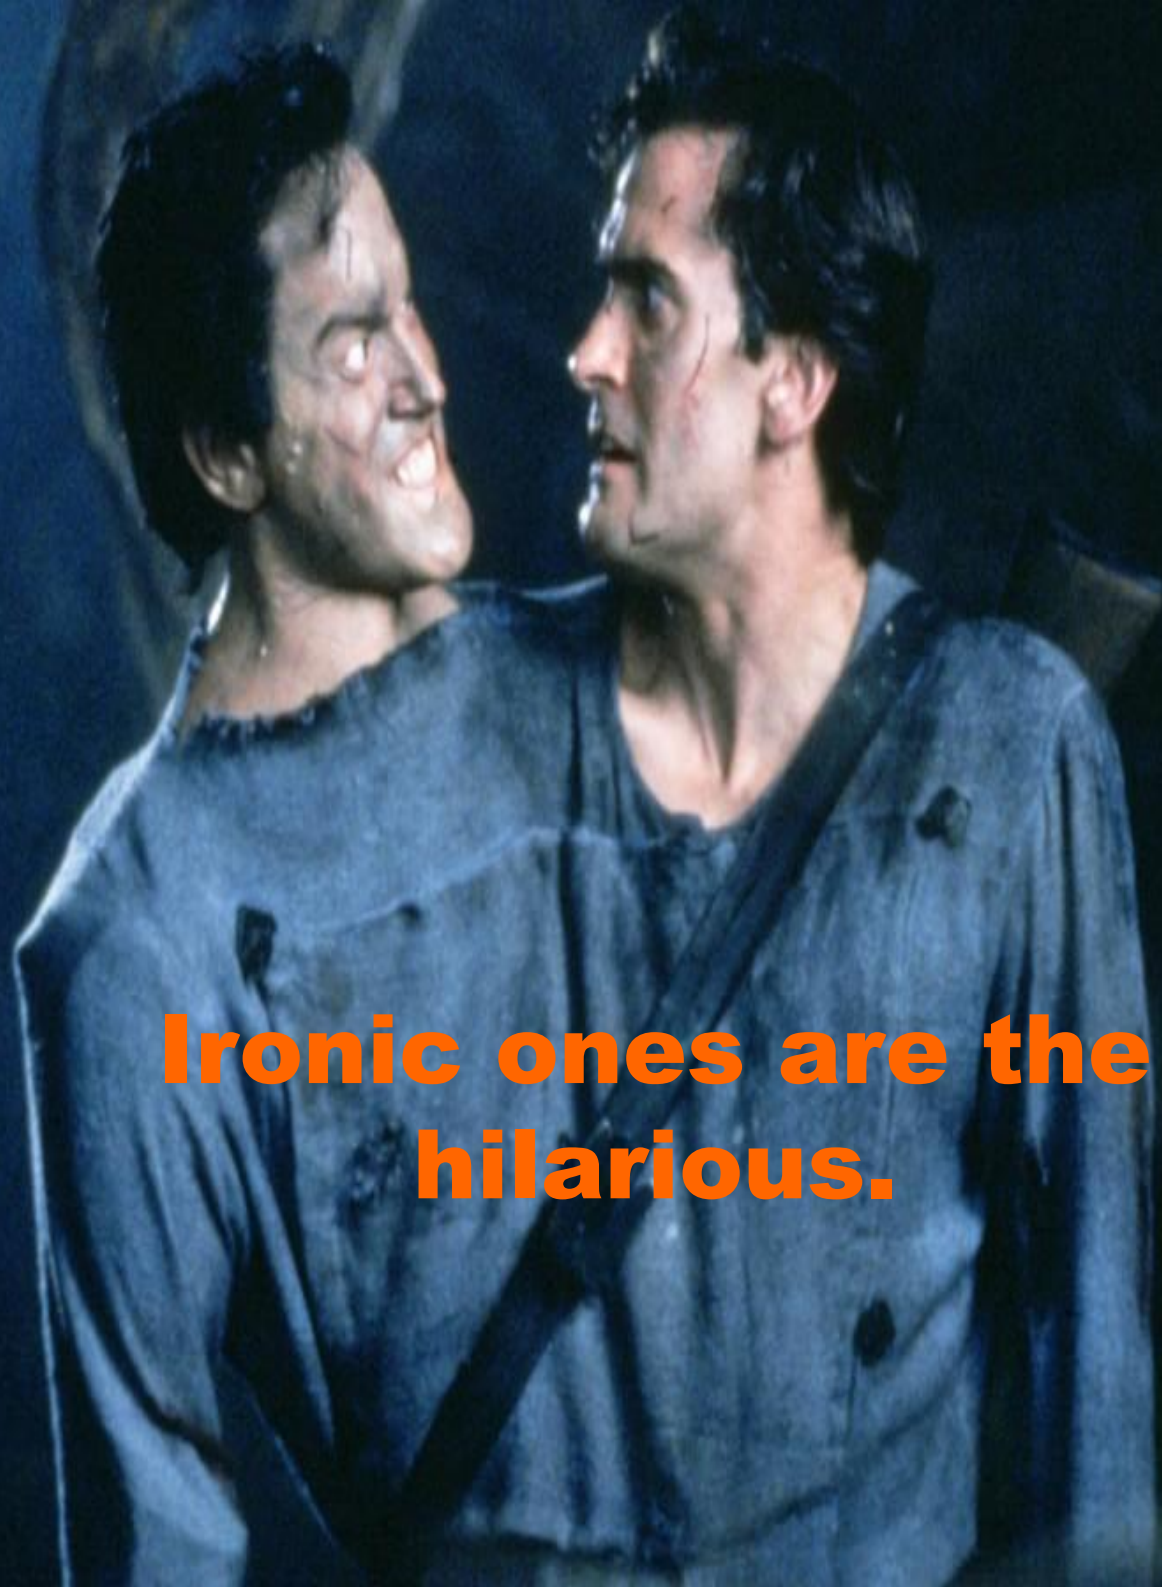

Old horror films are very interesting. Watching them we can see how this genre has evolved.

Also they can be very funny sometimes, because they are so naive.

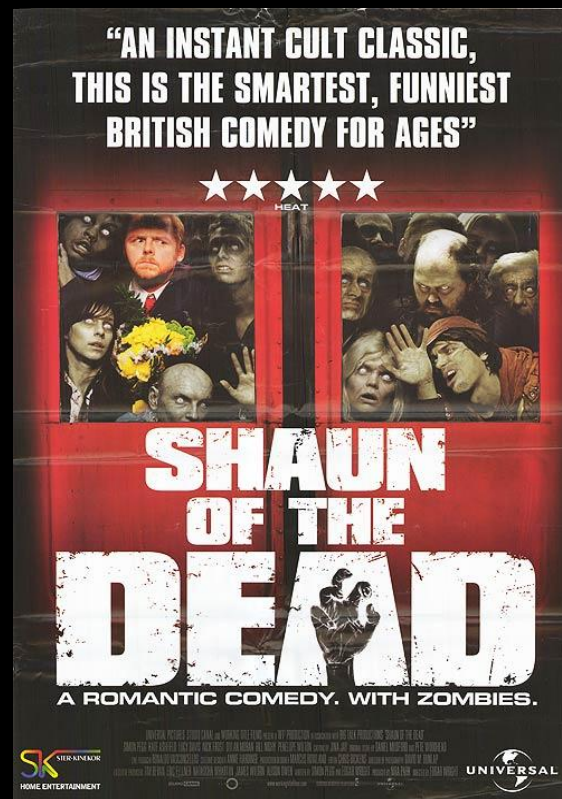

The most famous old horror film is Nasferatu. The film, shot in 1921 and released in 1922, was an unauthorized adaptation of Bram Stoker's Dracula

Ironic ones are the hilarious.

Directors don't take this genre serious and make something completely different.

Army of Darkness - is a 1992 American horror comedy film directed and co-written by Sam Raimi. It is the third film in the Evil Dead franchise. Ash Williams (main character) is trapped in the Middle Ages and battles the zombies in his quest to return to the present.

The bad horrors are sometimes so horribly written and directed that you can get absolutely different experience from watching them.

Some people consider Trolls 2 the worst horror film of all times. The plot is so goofy, it makes no sense. It concerns a family pursued by vegetarian goblins who seek to transform them into plants so that they can eat them.

Also I should mention that horrors films are often made without any effort just for making money

So it always warms my heart when appear directors who create something new and thrilling. Texas chainsaw massacre is one of these films
