

The background is a vibrant blue with a complex, abstract pattern of overlapping, glowing white lines that form a network or web-like structure. These lines intersect at various points, creating bright, starburst-like highlights. In the center of the image, there is a large, soft-edged white circle that serves as a focal point for the text.

Yuri Nikulin

Biography

Yuri Nikulin was born December 18, 1921 in Demidov (Smolensk province).

He was outstanding Soviet circus artist and actor.

He was the participant of Finnish and Gteat Patriotic wars.

Biography

In 1925 his family moved to Moscow.

After the war he entered the clown Studio at the Moscow circus on Tsvetnoy Boulevard.

First performance at the arena on October 25, 1948 in tandem with Boris Romanov at the Reprise of "Sitter and hack"

Biography

He made his film Debut in 1958 in a cameo role in the movie "Girl with guitar".

Nikulin has ceased to be in the circus when he was 60 years old.

Biography

Yuri Nikulin died 21 August 1997 from complications after heart surgery.

He was buried with military honors at Novodevichy cemetery.

Creativity

The actor made his film debut in 36 years and first paintings established itself as the inimitable diverse actor. He brought the circus arena up the various roles, masks, widely using eccentric circus and texture.

Creativity

there are more than 40 films with his participation.

The most famous of them “Diamond hand”, “prisoner of the Caucasus”, “Operation y and other Shurik's adventures”, “Bootleggers”

Memory

- Monument in Novodevichy cemetery

- The monument in front of the Circus on Tsvetnoy Boulevard

- Goonies, Coward and Experienced. Sculpture in Khabarovsk