The domestic cat (Latin: Felis catus) is a small, typically furry, carnivorous mammal. They are often called house cats when kept as indoor pets or simply cats when there is no need to distinguish them from other felids and felines. Cats are often valued by humans for companionship and for their ability to hunt vermin. There are more than 70 cat breeds; different associations proclaim different numbers according to their standards.

The house cat sits
and smiles and sings.
He knows a lot of Secret things.

I love little pussy,
Her coat is so warm,
And if I don't hurt her,
She'll do me no harm.
So I'll not pull her tail,
Nor drive her away,
But pussy and I
Very gently will play:
She shall sit by my side,
And I'll give her some food;
And pussy will love me
Because I am good.

Dame Trot

Dame Trot and her cat
Sat down for a chat;
The dame sat down on this
And puss sat on that.

Puss, says the Dame,
Can you catch a rat,
Or mouse in the dark?
Purr, says the cat.
