

Englishmen say "There is no bad weather, there are bad clothes", It means that they like all the seasons

Autumn is full of colours, bright and tasty. The sky is blue, but sometimes grey clouds appear.

Autumn is full of vegetables and fruit, mushrooms and berries.

The weather during winter in London varies.

One day warm temperatures and a cool breeze and the next day- snowy.

London summer is unpredictable.

A week of rain or a week of sunshine and high temperatures

Spring - Sometimes it can be sunny and a pleasant, other times it can be chilly and grey
