

OVERCONFIDENCE

DONE BY: IZATOVA ASELYA
SARBOPEYEVA ZHULDYZ

WHAT ARE CONFIDENCE AND OVERCONFIDENCE?

Confidence

- Property of the individual, based on an objective assessment of the person's own abilities, capabilities and skills
- Confident man - a Personality.

Overconfidence

- The phenomenon that people's confidence in their judgments and knowledge is higher than the accuracy of these judgments
- Overconfidence - this is the first sign of non- confident in the person himself.

DIFFERENCE

Confidence

- Positive sense
- Adequate, reasonable behavior.
- Based on objective indicators.
- Full of self-esteem

Overconfidence

- Negative sense
- Talking about mental and behavior problems.
- Has no reasonable motive.
- Very easy to manipulate

EXAMPLES

