

Only love is spoken here

St. V

when people in love express their feelings to each other.

The 14th of February is the most romantic day of the whole year, the day of eternal, everlasting love and all sweethearts.

There are several beliefs of how and why this outstanding day has gained its meaning.

The first one is about an Italian bishop in the 3rd century, who secretly married couples defying the Emperor's order. So, he became the patron saint of lovers after he was imprisoned by Emperor Claudius.

Another story says that a Christian priest
had been thrown in prison
for his teaching.
On the 14th of February,
Valentine was beheaded.

And one further theory is that the 14th of February was chosen because birds traditionally began to mate on that day.

Whatever the origin, Valentine's Day has had romantic history for a long time. St. Valentine was a Christian martyr and protector.

Every country has its own traditions and customs.

Young people hoped to find their own mates on Valentine's Day. One of the customs young people like is name drawing. Also they chanted magic charms and spells, trying to make their wishes come true. The British added this pagan magic to the holiday.

went by, she believed she would not be married that year. If she saw a man, she thought he would be her husband or look like her husband.

On this day men and women send little presents. It can be everything you want. But as usual it is chocolate, toys, candies, red hearts, flowers and verses.

Red is the colour most often used in valentines because it is a symbol of warmth and feelings. This is the reason why red roses have long been a symbol of love.

Little, lovely toys are also a very good option.
