

INTRODUCING AND GREETING PEOPLE

HOW TO GREET PEOPLE

THERE ARE DIFFERENT WAYS TO GREET PEOPLE:

- Greeting means welcoming someone with particular words or a particular action.
- When meeting people formally for the first time, we greet by shaking hands and saying "How do you do?" or "Pleased to meet you."
- "How do you do?" isn't really a question, it just means "Hello".
- When young people meet informally they sometimes greet and say "Give me five!" and slap their hands together (high five).
- Generally we do not greet by shaking hands with people we know well. We greet by just saying 'hi' or 'hello'
- Here are some expressions you can use to greet people.

GREETING

- Hi, hello.
- Good morning, good afternoon, good evening.
- How are you?
- How are you doing?
- How do you do?

Hi!
Hello!
How are you?
Good morning!
Good afternoon!
Good evening!

Things to remember about greeting:

When you greet someone and say:

"How do you do?"

this isn't really a question, it just means "Hello".
