

Dishes of Scottish Cuisine

By Maria Medvedeva,
Daria Shelepniova
Form 7 "B"

Haggis

Fish and chips (or a "fish supper")

Porridge

Colcan non

Arbroath Smokie

Dundee Orange Marmalade

Dundee Cake

Tea Cake

Tablet

Did you know?

- Over two thirds of the world's langoustines are sourced in Scotland
- Scottish Salmon was the first foreign product to gain France's prestigious 'Label Rouge' quality mark
- Scottish lobsters are on the menu in over 20 Michelin-starred restaurants in Tokyo alone
- Some of Scotland's products have achieved Protected Geographical Indication (PGI) status, such as Scotch Beef and Lamb, Scotch Whisky

THANK YOU