

"My favourite holiday"

---

My favorite holiday is Victory Day on may 9

---

- Victory day is a celebration of the victory of the red Army and the Soviet people

This holiday is very important for many people , because it carries a

Holiday tradition

- On this day, it is customary to hold military parades,

No one is forgotten, nothing is forgotten

- No wonder they say that it is a "holiday with tears in their eyes". The war claimed many lives and taught a bitter lesson that no one will forget.
- But there are people who have passed this war and to them on this day all the attention they are living
