

Weird animal

Biruang

- Biruang or Malayan bear. This mammal animal belongs to a family of bears. Lives biruang in Indochina and Indonesia. This bear has a stocky figure with a short but wide muzzle. Biruang ears are short and round shape. On the high end are located the huge paws with large curved claws. The feet of a bear naked, and small canines. On the chest of the animal it is usually located spot that resembles a rising sun. Biruang is nocturnal, the day he sleeps or takes a sunbath on the trees, which equips himself a house, like a nest. Noteworthy is the animal that is the smallest member of the family of bears, to the very rare. biruang length does not exceed one and a half meters, the height of not more than 70 cm and weight of 27 to 65 kg.

Komondor

- Komondor. This breed of dog is also called the Hungarian sheepdog. It dwells everywhere, since this pet. When the content of the dog can not do without special grooming, because its length can reach almost a meter. Wool is impossible to comb, but as it grows locks just need to share, otherwise the hair will stall. This Hungarian Shepherd has impressive size, being one of the biggest dogs in the world. Height at the withers males may exceed 80 cm, and the long white wool, rolled into laces, further increases the visual size of the animal

Pygmy marmoset

- Pygmy marmoset. This primate is one of the smallest, it refers to the broad-nosed monkeys. Lives marmosets in South American countries - Ecuador, Peru, Brazil. The adult weighs less than 120 grams. primate nostrils directed forward, which is unusual, the nose is rather large and wide. In captivity, tamarins feels good to its content need only to keep a constant temperature of 25-29 degrees and high humidity of 60%.

