

PAST
CONTINUOUS

Who was doing what at the birthday party last weekend?

A boy was playing with a toy plane.

A girl was eating
jam from a jar.

A boy was crying
in the corner.

A boy was blowing
out a candle.

Two children were painting on the floor.

A baby was drinking milk.

A baby was sleeping.

A girl was jumping
rope.

A boy was riding
his tricycle.

Two children were dancing.

A baby was clapping
his hands.

So we use the PAST
CONTINUOUS for actions
which were in progress for some time in the past
