

Minsk city center of translations

- The city center of translations is a translation company with full cycle, provides a full range of translation and information services: simultaneous and consecutive translation, written translation, design and replication of documents, as well as a wide range of related services.

- The concept of the development of the center is to continually improve the quality and expand the package of services, ensuring their availability to a broad spectrum of clients.

THE POLICY OF RELIABLE PARTNERSHIP

- When building relationships with clients, the policy of "reliable partnership", the main principles of which are:
- - the company's good name and the quality of services is more important than our economic interests;
- - providing complete and accurate information about the company and its production capabilities;
- - maintain complete confidentiality of all information obtained in the course of cooperation with customers and partners.

STRATEGY DEVELOPMENT

- Currently the priority activity of the company is to expand the export markets for our services. The most important export markets are Western Europe, North America and the Russian Federation. Since the beginning of 2008, our company is actively engaged in export promotion of our services to the Asian market.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE MINSK CITY CENTER OF TRANSLATIONS

- The advantages of Minsk city center of translations are:
- - high quality services;
- - confidentiality;
- - reasonable price;
- - customer oriented approach;
- - clock support;
- - all forms of payment;
- - efficiency;
- - professional team;
- - modern technologies of production.

CUSTOMERS

- Among the loyal customers are worldwide known national and multinational companies and their representative offices, international organizations, government bodies, law enforcement agencies, courts, foreign embassies, educational institutions and non-governmental organizations.