Watch the following situation and answer the questions:

1. Where did the woman want to get?
2. Did the man give the correct direction?
3. Did she understand the direction?

Look at the map in your textbooks and tell if the sentences are true or false:

1. The bakery is opposite the square.
2. The florist's is between the toy shop and the music shop.
3. Art Gallery is on the corner of Bath Street and Eldon Road.
4. Cinema is next to the clothes shop.
5. Supermarket is opposite the cafe.
6. Fast Food Restaurant is near the Book shop.
7. The Book Shop is on the Bath Street.

Look at the map and choose the correct name of the building:

1. Go along Eldon Road, turn the first turn on the right. It's the second building on your right.
2. Go up Berry Street, turn left on Eldon Road, go past Toy Shop. It's on your left.
3. Go down Alma Street, turn right on Eldon Road. Pass Bath Street. It's opposite the Bakery.

Fill in the missing preposition: between, next to, near, opposite, on.

1. The Bakery isthe Supermarket.
2. The Square isthe Bakery.
3. The Cinema isthe Café and the Newsagent's.
4. Fast Food Restaurant isthe corner of Eldon Road and Berry Street.
5. Art Gallery isthe Music Shop.

1. The Bakery is near (next to) the Supermarket.
2. The Square is opposite the Bakery.
3. The Cinema is between the Café and the Newsagent's.
4. Fast Food Restaurant is on the corner of Eldon Road and Berry Street.
5. Art Gallery is near (next to) the Music Shop.

Listen and repeat some phrases from the dialogue and guess what it is about.

- Excuse me, is there a fast food restaurant near here?
- Where exactly?
- Can you tell me where the cinema is?
- On my left?
- You can't miss it.

Listen to the dialogues and find the places on the map in your textbooks.

Act out dialogues asking for/giving directions from:

- the bakery to the newsagent's
- The bookshop to the café
- the music shop to the chemist's
- the toy shop to the square
- the chemist's to the supermarket
