We will say farewell to this MEC and move entirely to the new site on December 16. All your achievements, including badges, transcript and certificates, will be in the new site. Please save any of your profile details and lesson plans from this site that you would like to archive for personal use outside of MEC. Once MEC moves to the new site, your lesson plans will no longer be available.

Historical Places in INDIA

Languages: English

Collaborative Project

Learning objectives:

- ★ Students will learn more about our beautiful country.
- ★ Students will learn Historical places of India.
- ★ Students will get more knowledge about Historical places

We live in one of the most beautiful countries in the world. We have a great history to know, the most beautiful flowers and birds, lots of rivers and incredible landscapes. Our people are kind and Humble. They are always helpful to each other. All people are happy in their work & passion. India has big history so each and every student & country should learn about it.

My students and I want to show historical places we have here and why not to invite you to visit our little memorable monuments, historical places and surprises. Welcome to India!

We are very eager to tell the world about our historical wonderful country but equally share our experiences with yours. You can tell us more about your country and its history. So we look forward to hearing from you!

OPEN HEARTS. OPEN MINDS.

Thank you! You did it!

You met and surpassed our goal!

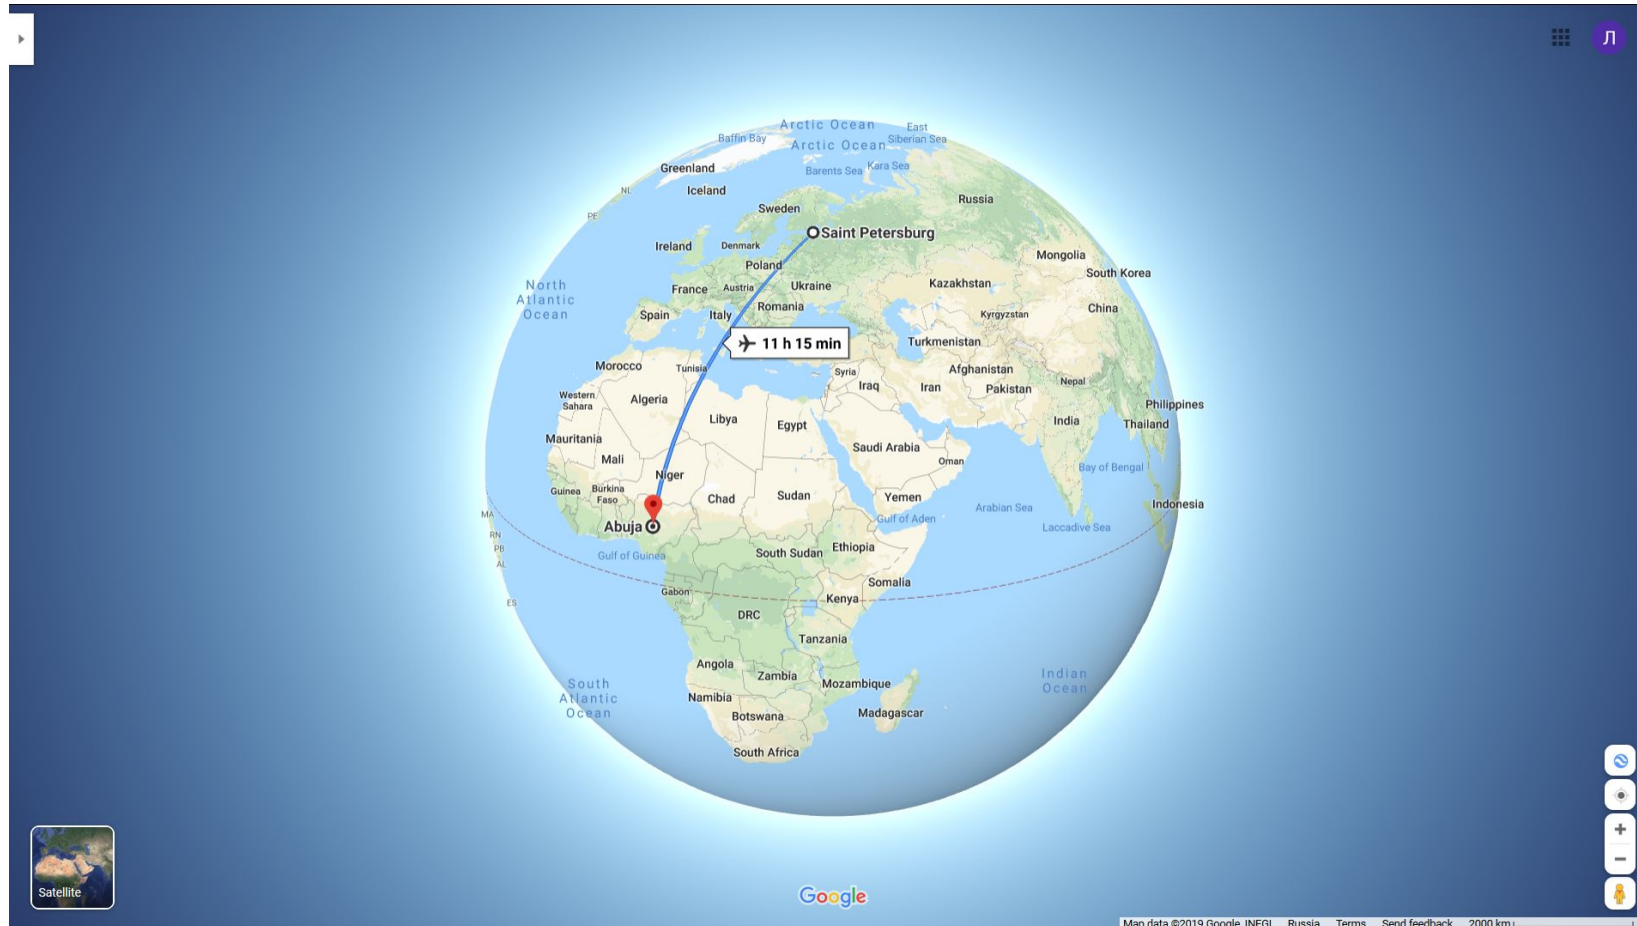

Hundreds of thousands of students, teachers and guest speakers in over 110 countries connected and in 48 hours they traveled over 17 million virtual miles via Skype, Teams and Flipgrid. Together we celebrated the power of global learning, shared about cultures and environments near and far, as well as fostered empathy and compassion for one other and our planet.

It was amazing!

Where Can I Keep My Records?

The screenshot shows a Facebook group page for "Mystery Skype / Skype in the Classroom". The post is by Hien Ho, dated October 30, and is marked as a "Conversation Starter". The text of the post reads: "This is the third time we have connected with teachers and students in Russia. My ss enjoyed talking to their eager, friendly, smart students a lot. Thank you, Lyubov Alexeyeva for your interesting lesson plan, careful preparation and thoughtful consideration afterwards." Below the text is a large photo of a classroom where a group of students is gathered around a large screen displaying a Skype video call with several people. The text "Vietnam-Russia #3" is overlaid on the bottom of the photo. To the left of the main post is a sidebar with navigation options: "About", "Discussion", "Hien's post" (highlighted), "Mentorship", "Members", "Events", "Videos", "Photos", "Files", and "Watch Party". At the bottom of the sidebar is a search bar and a "Shortcuts" section with links to "Mystery Skype / Skype i...", "Skype in the Classro...", "УЧИТЕЛЬСКИЕ Ф...", and "Classes Mme Aida 2...".

The screenshot shows a VK post from the group "Skype in My Classroom", dated October 29, 2019, at 18:39. The post is titled "Vietnam - Russia" and includes the following details: "City: Ho Chi Minh city", "Students: Foreign Languages Department (2nd year)", and "Teacher: Hien Ho https://education.microsoft.com/Status/Public?token=5..". Below this, it lists: "City: Saint Petersburg", "University: Herzen State Pedagogical University of Russia", "Students: Physics Department (4th year)", and "Teacher: Lyubov Alekseeva". The post includes a thumbs-up reaction and a comment: "That was great!!". At the bottom, there is a "PS: See the comments below!" and a hashtag "#skypeintheclassroom". Below the text are three small thumbnail images showing classroom scenes with students and a Skype screen. At the bottom of the page is a yellow banner with the URL <https://vk.com>.
