

PRESENTATION ON THE TOPIC MY IDOL

Teacher: Garipova Aliya
Nakipovna

Finished: Alena
Samarina

Yuriy Mikhailovich Borzakovskiy (April 12, 1981, Kratovo, Ramenskiy district, Moscow region) — Russia's athlete, Olympic champion 2004, world champion and three-time European champion, honored master of sports of Russia (2001), head coach of Russia in athletics (2015). One of the six Olympic Champions from Russia in men's athletics and the only one in the running disciplines.

- A graduate of the Moscow state Academy of physical culture. Champion of Russia among young people (1997) in the 800 m, the winner of World Youth games (1998), multiple champion of Russia in run on 800 m (1999-2009), the champion of Russia in run on 400 and 800 meters among juniors (1999), the champion of Europe and Russia in run on 800 m among young people (2001), world record holder, Europe and Russia among the youth in the 800 m indoors (2001), the champion of Russia in run on 600 metres indoors (2010), 800 m (2001), 800 m indoors (2001) and 1000 m in the room (2008), winner of European Cup (1999), champion of Europe among juniors (1999), two-time winner of the winter championship of Europe in run on 800 m (2000 and 2009), champion of Europe among youth in the women's 400 m (2001), winner of the winter championship of the world in run on 800 m (2001), the Olympic champion of 2004 in run on 800 m.

Family

AFTER HIS SPORTS CAREER, TOOK UP THE POST OF CHIEF COACH OF
THE NOMAD: FEDERATION OF ATHLETICS

ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN A POLICY OF DESTRUCTION OF DOPING IN RUSSIA: DOPING WILL BE CHOPPED
AT THE ROOT

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!