

Учитель английского языка
Леонова Елена Васильевна
ГБОУ Школа N 555 «Белогорье»
elleonova@yandex.ru
Санкт-Петербург

Past Simple I

- Last summer, Julie and Brian visited Australia. They stayed at a lovely hotel in Sydney. They visited the Sydney Opera House and they walked around the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Did they enjoy themselves? Yes, they did.
- When did they visit Australia?

Form

Regular Verbs

affirmative: I cleaned, You cleaned,
She cleaned.

interrogative: Did I clean? Did you clean?
Did she clean?

negative: I didn't clean. You didn't clean. She didn't clean.

What did /didn't you do last summer?

- work / travel round the world
- watch TV / talk to my friends
- listen to music / play on the beach
- tidy my room / visit my grandparents

Spelling Rules

- + ed
prayed, called, missed
- + d
closed, loved
- y → ied
studied, cried
- double consonant + ed
travelled, stopped, robbed

Pronunciation

- /ɪd/ in verbs ending in /d/, /t/
sounds
needed, arrested
- /t/ in verbs ending in /s/, /k/, /f/, /p/, /ʃ/, /tʃ/
passed, worked, laughed, helped,
washed, watched
- /d/ in verbs ending in any other sound
opened, carried, cleaned, arranged

Past Simple II

- Julie and Brian went swimming every day. They saw some kangaroos, but they didn't see any crocodiles. They had a lot of fun. What else do you think they did in Australia?

Form

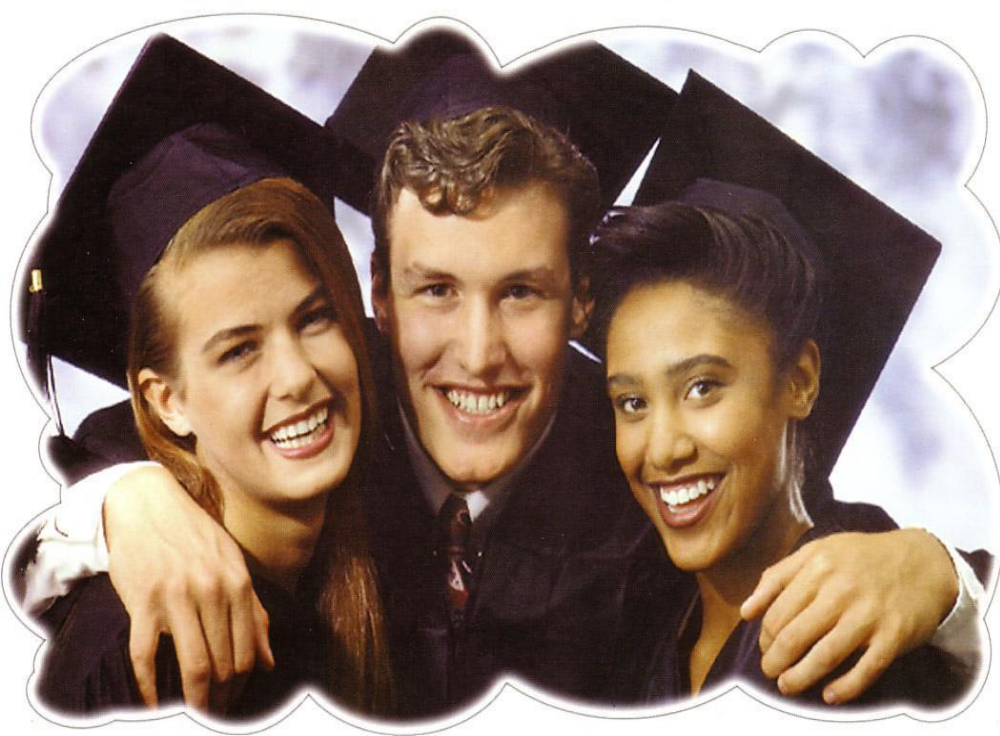

Irregular Verbs

Affirmative: I wrote, You wrote,
She wrote.

Interrogative: Did I write? Did you write?
Did she write?

Negative: I didn't write. You didn't write. She didn't write.

Use

- They graduated four years ago.
- When did they graduate?
- Do we know when they graduated?

Use 1

- We use the Past Simple for actions which happened at a definite or stated time in the past.

- He often played football with his dad when he was five.
- When did he play football with his dad?
- Does he play football with his dad now?

Use 2

- We use the past simple for repeated actions which happened in the past but don't happen any more.

Use

- They cooked the meal first.
- Then they ate with their friends.
- What did they do first?
- What did they do after that?

Use 3

- We use the past simple for actions which happened immediately one after the other in the past.

Use

- Princess Diana visited a lot of schools.
- Is Princess Diana alive?

Use 4

- We use the past simple to talk about people who are no longer alive.

Time Expressions

- yesterday
- last night/week/month/year
- on Monday
- two days/weeks ago
- then
- when
- in 1998