

My family and I

- About myself

My name is Moldir. I am nineteen. I am from Kazakhstan. I am a student. My favourite colour is green. My favourite number is seven. I like singing, playing chess, dancing. I am a short. I have fair hair. I have brown eyes. I have average mouth. I am happy, quiet, friendly, busy.

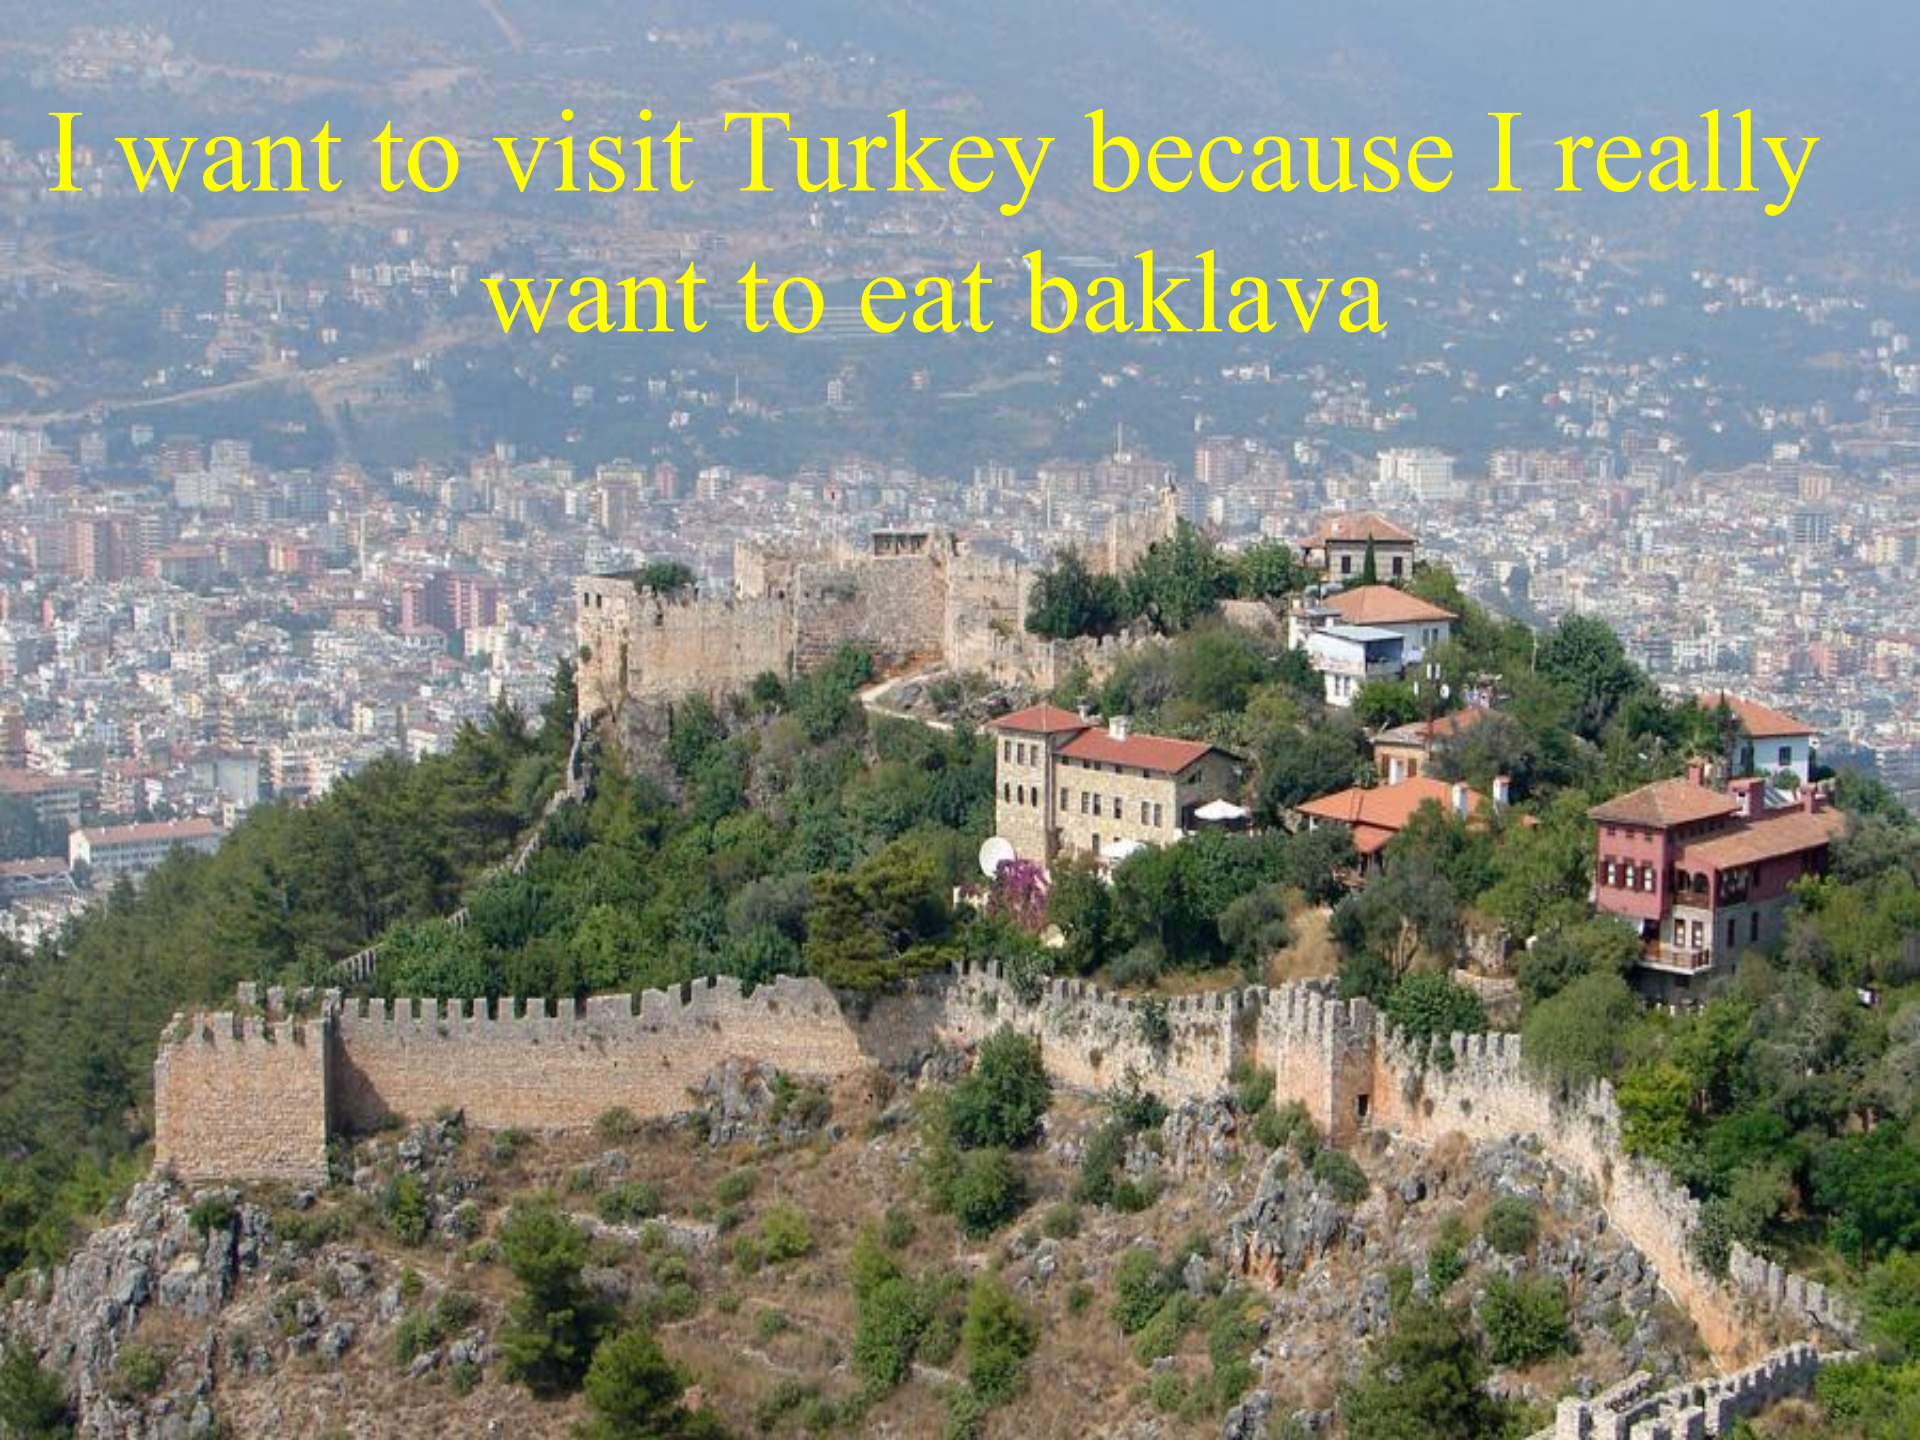

My family

My family consists of four members: my grandmother, my father, my sister and me. My grandmother's name is Turmysh. She is seventy four. She is already retired. My grandmother likes garden. My father's name is Askar. He is fifty one. He is a actor. He loves his job. My sister's name is Dana. She is seventeen. She is student. My sister likes reading books and going out with her friends.

I want to visit Turkey because I really want to eat baklava

The capital of Turkey is Ankara. The official language is Turkish.

I want to see the most famous sights are concentrated outside the city.

Another no less beautiful place in Turkey is the Topkapi Palace, built in the XV century on the orders of Mehmed the Conqueror.

This ghost town, as though lost in time, everything here remains the same as it was 100 years ago: narrow streets, stone houses, beautiful scenery.

Aspendos is one of the best preserved and largest Russian theaters in Turkey.

Flag in Turkey

Blue Mosque

The most famous, of course, baklava. This test countless subtle layers, between which are laid nuts

