Philosophy in linguistics

A lot of his work happened during the dawn of German Classical philosophy so he was influenced heavily by such thinkers like Immanuel Kant and George Hegel

Many would say that Humboldt is hard to read because he merges his philosophical outlook and linguistics study

How Humbolt came up with his theory interrelationship of language and culture

- Language as an activity and the a continuous creative process.
- Character and structure of a language expresses the inner life, culture and knowledge of its speakers
- Humans perceive the world through the medium of language.

The living legacy

- Humbolt gave a start to a new branch of linguistics — ethnolinguistics
- Intercultural communication as a continuation of his work
