HEADLINE

Let's start with the first set of slides

A top-down view of a desk with a spiral notebook, a pen, a water bottle, a keyboard, and a mouse. The notebook is open and has a blue horizontal band across the middle. The text is centered on this band.

“Quotations are commonly printed as a means of inspiration and to invoke philosophical thoughts from the reader”

THIS IS A SLIDE TITLE

- Here you have a list of items
- And some text
- But remember not to overload your slides with content

Your audience will listen to you or read the content, but won't do both.

BIG CONCEPT

Bring the attention of your audience over a key concept using icons or illustrations

A person is shown from the chest up, reading a book. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent blue filter. The person's hands are visible, holding the book open. The text on the book is partially legible, including phrases like 'The National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of the Violence in the Urban Slums' and 'The National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of the Violence in the Urban Slums'.

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

A complex idea can be conveyed with just a single still image, namely making it possible to absorb large amounts of data quickly.

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a blue marker, writing on a green chalkboard. The hand is positioned on the right side of the frame, with the index and middle fingers gripping the marker. The chalkboard is filled with faint, white chalk markings, including the number '6' and the word 'Komm'. A solid blue rectangular overlay is positioned on the left side of the image, containing white text.
