A common practice and a popular look is to wear your fringe bangs over one eye with a slight part on the opposite side while using a comb to smooth out the hair with a flat iron for a sleek look with medium length hair.

Bangs can be cut in various exciting new ways from ultra-full, angled, curvy or cropped; however blunt bangs especially for women with round faces should be avoided.

Excellent updos are often made on the base of classic hairstyles, like braids for example.

6. We will show you how to turn a simple, but exquisite Dutch braid into an elegant hairstyle.

(Работа с текстом творческой группы в составе 4 человек: диктор, переводчик, парикмахер, модель.)

Словарь к тексту:

- exquisite -изысканный,
- to base-основываться,
- inverted -перевернутый ,
- to divide- делить,
- instead of –вместо,
- underneath-вниз,
- to incorporate -соединять ,
- a rule-правило,
- to continue –продолжать,
- a rest - остаток.

A.

Make a side part on the top of your head. Start making the Dutch braid from your bangs. Dutch braid is basically a French braid, but inverted. Divide the hair into three sections, but instead of crossing them on top, do it underneath.

B.

Each time you take a left or right strand you need to incorporate a part of hair from the left or right side of your braid. This are the two most important rules for creating a Dutch braid.

Tie the finished braid with an elastic.

C.

The braids add softness and elegance to your hairstyle. If you don't want your bangs to be incorporated into the braid, you can start from the top of your head.
