

How SMART is your HOME

A HOUSE IS MADE OF WALLS & BEAMS

BUT

A HOME IS BUILT WITH LOVE & DREAMS

What's the difference?

house (noun or verb 'to house') – when using the word 'house' we are referring to the place, the building, the construction, the structure; as a verb, 'to house' means to provide accommodation or shelter for people or animals

home (noun or verb 'to home') – when using the word 'home' we are referring to the place where we live and feel comfortable at; it is connected with the idea of emotional connection; as a verb, 'to home' refers to animals returning to their territory after leaving it

Two popular quotes about home:
"Home is where the heart is"
"Home sweet home"

House = Building

Home = Place
