

Crime and Punishment

What punishments fit these crimes?

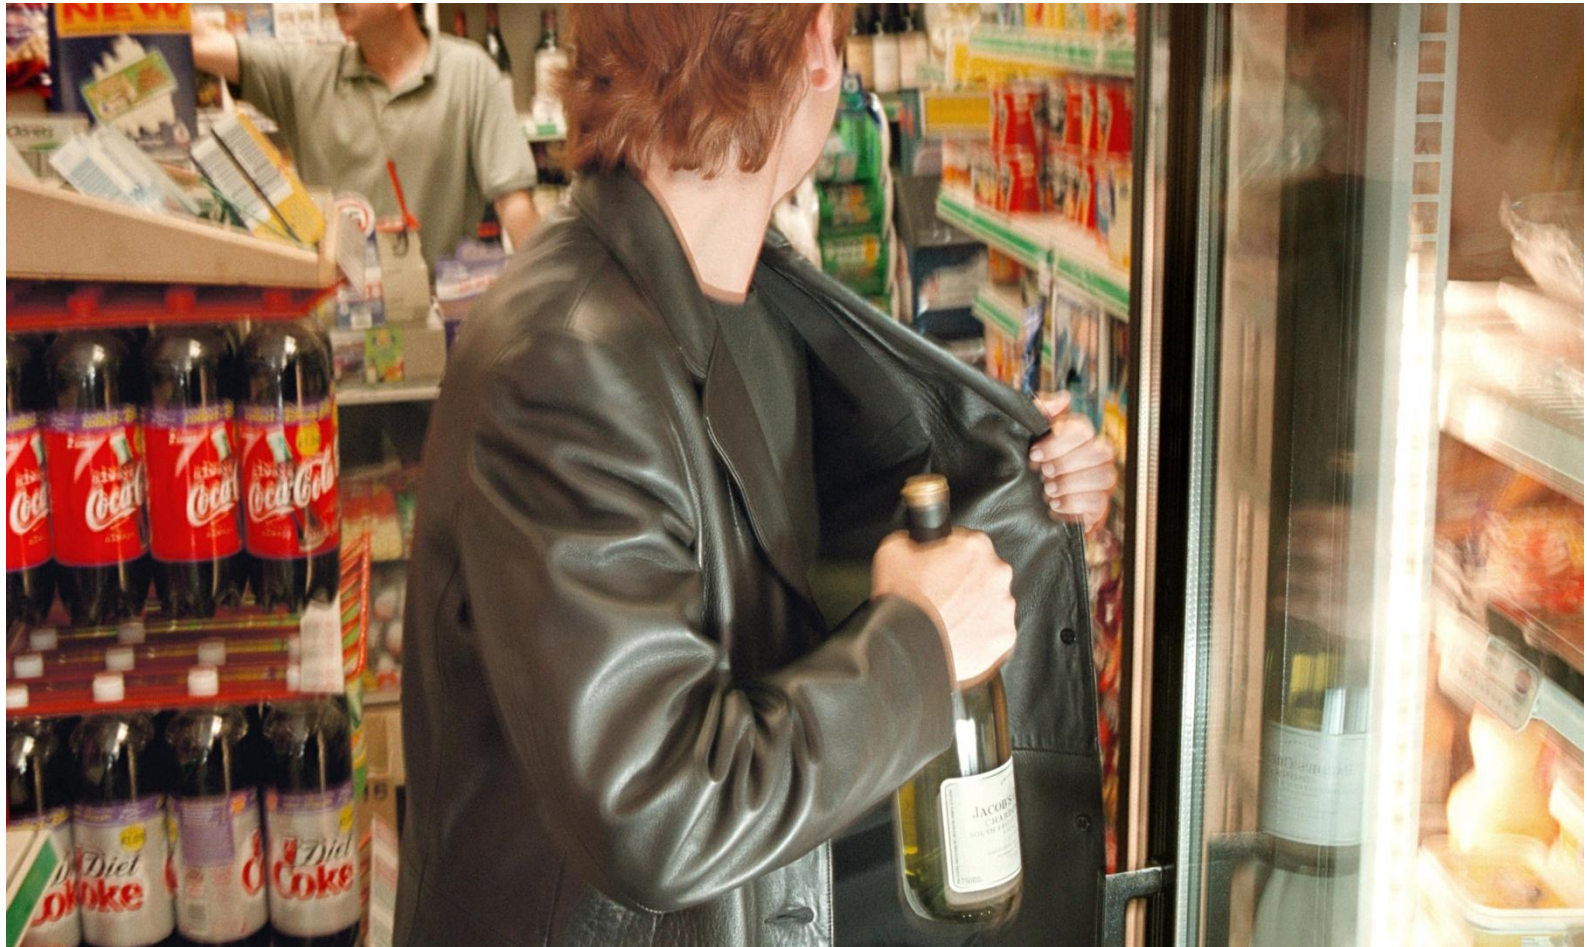

A desperate parent shoplifts from a supermarket to feed her starving children.

A woman shoplifts from a supermarket to feed her husband.

A person steals from a shop to feed a drug addiction.

A rich person is caught attempting to steal a priceless painting. They don't steal for money, only for sport.

A group of teenagers steal lipstick from a chemist's.

A person is arrested for selling drugs on the street.

A person is caught smuggling drugs into a country.

Police stop a person in the street and find a small quantity of drugs in their pocket.

A man is caught busking without a licence.

A person is caught pickpocketing.

An abusive husband kills his wife in a drunken rage.

An abused wife lashes out killing her abusive husband.

A customer slips on a wet floor in a McDonald's and breaks their arm.

A badly-maintained machine in a factory malfunctions, breaking a worker's arm.

A drunk driver hits another car seriously injuring 2 of the passengers.

Two drunk people get into a fight outside a bar, one accidentally pushes the other into the road where they are hit by a car suffering fatal injuries.

A fat cat is caught embezzling thousands of pounds from a multi-national corporation.

A supermarket worker is caught stealing from the till.

