

International Legal English Certificate. (ILEC)

(ILEC) is a high-level English language qualification for lawyers. ILEC is an examination set at levels B2 and C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. ILEC assesses language skills in a legal context.

Examinations at the C1 level may be used as proof of the level of language necessary to work in an international legal context or to follow a course of legal study at university level.

The aims of ILEC:

to assess candidates' ability to allow candidates to demonstrate to to communicate in English with clients and colleagues

to allow candidates to demonstrate to

on legal study ... a significant portion of the instruction is in English to have a positive and beneficial

legal purposes

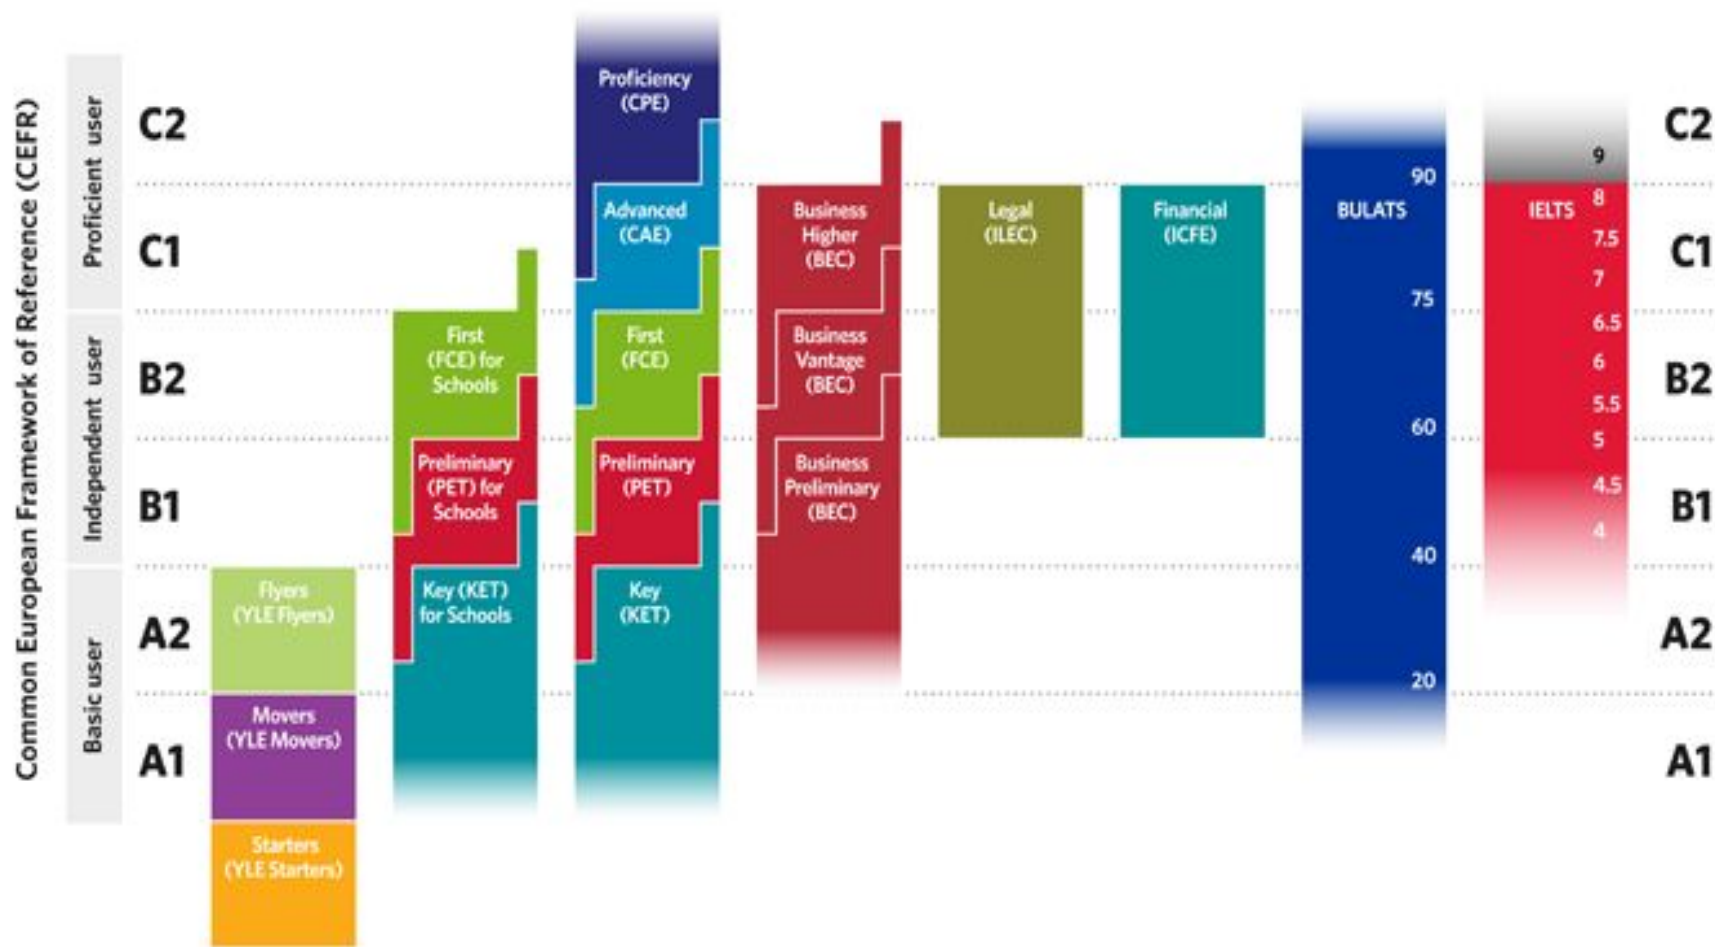

The content of ILEC

ILEC comprises the Test of Reading, the Test of Writing, the Test of Listening and the Test of Speaking.

Each test is based on realistic texts, tasks and topics similar to those practitioners would expect to encounter in their daily working lives. The examination texts and topics are set in the context of international commercial law.

Cambridge English

A range of exams to meet different needs

ILEC candidature

ILEC is suitable for law students and practising lawyers who are seeking employment in an international legal setting.

This includes law students who are:
seeking employment in an international government agencies

intending to study law where the course abroad

It includes practising lawyers who are:

seeking new employment in an

[Redacted]

organisations

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

ILEC candidates are expected to be familiar with some legal concepts and terminology commonly associated with international commercial law.

Grading and results

Results are reported as three passing grades (C1 Pass with Merit, C1 Pass and B2 Pass) and two failing grades (Narrow Fail and Fail).

A candidate's overall ILEC grade is based on the total score gained by the candidate in all four papers.

References:

1.

<http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/exams/legal>

2. <http://www.cambridgeesol.org/>

3. <http://www.translegal.com/>