Exotic pets

Some people to keep exotic animals as because It has become fashionable.

But in my opinion it is not reasonable at all : they make bad pets. First, it is very dangerous for the owners themselves. Second, other people (their neighbors for instance) are not safe either.

Third, you should think of animals too: I am not sure that they feel comfortable in our environment.

When I say about it to my parents they say that need take him to the vet. When vet see him they say that paw isn't broken and sell some medicaments. So now I have cat. He is very kind and all family love him.
