

National Stereotypes

THE WORLD AS WE KNOW

Brits abroad

9 Stereotypes About The British That Simply Aren't True

- 1. We're all English
- 2. We all live in London...
- 3. ...or in a thatched cottage in the country

- 5. We're all related to the royal family
- 9. We're all clever

Top ...Typically British Traits

- Saying Sorry
- A Stiff Upper Lip
- Ability to Laugh at Ourselves
- Sarcasm
- Reserved
- Moaning
- Intelligence
- Stubbornness
- Down To Earth
- Friendly

Brain of Britain

language learning facility (not visible to naked eye)

Royal Family
recognition centre

nostalgia
segment

mistrust of Europe
ventricle

national pride gland (likely to become inflamed
during World Cup)

bottled-up anger

tea

beer

custard

(for Scotland, see 'porridge')

pastry

sea traditional breakfast

repository of useless
facts for pub quiz nights

Isle of Wight

love of countryside

BACKBONE!

Specimen - copyright LCP

HUMBLE...

...AS THE ROYAL FAMILY

WELCOMING...

...AS THE WEATHER.

POLITE...

...AS A PUNK.

THE PERFECT BRIT

SHOULD BE...

A GREAT COOK...

...LIKE THE ENGLISH

SOBER...

...AS A JUDGE

RELAXED...

...AS A GUARDSMAN

GENEROUS...

...AS A SCOT.

INTELLIGIBLE...
LLANUGW...
... AS THE?
WELSH.

Di Hughes - hiker © 1992

AMERICAN STEREOTYPES

They only eat McDonald's

Everything is bigger

They all have a trailer-park relative

They all worship Wal-Mart

They all have guns

They assume this is Canada

www.chinchatcomics.com

