

Easter.

Easter Is A Bright Holiday of Christ's Resurrection.

- This holiday came to Russia from Byzantium together with baptism at the end of the 10th century. Since then, throughout Russia, this Christian holiday has been widely, beautifully and solemnly celebrated.

The Eve Of Easter.

- On the eve of Easter all night vigils and a procession around the church are held in all the temples. By this time already in all houses baked traditional holiday baking- cakes, which symbolize the body of Christ , and painted eggs.

Easter Custom

- There is a popular belief that wearing new things on Easter will bring good luck throughout the year.

“Christ Is Risen!”

- “Christ is risen!”-” Truly risen!”. This custom of greeting-congratulation, accompanied by hugs and kisses, was called “ Christosity.” The holiday of the Christian Easter lasts seven days and is called the Holy Week or the Seven.

Easter Eggs.

- Egg is traditionally painted in red colour and shades.

Easter Cake

- The symbol of the Christian was a cake. It was baked high and round. On the top of Easter Cake decorating the image of the cross. It is believed that if the Easter bread is successful , then everything will be all right in the family.

Russian Custom

- Easter eggs were sent and gifts were distributed to the relatives and completely unfamiliar people, orphanages, hospitals and prisons.

