

Romny

is a city in Ukraine and district administrative centre in Sumy Region

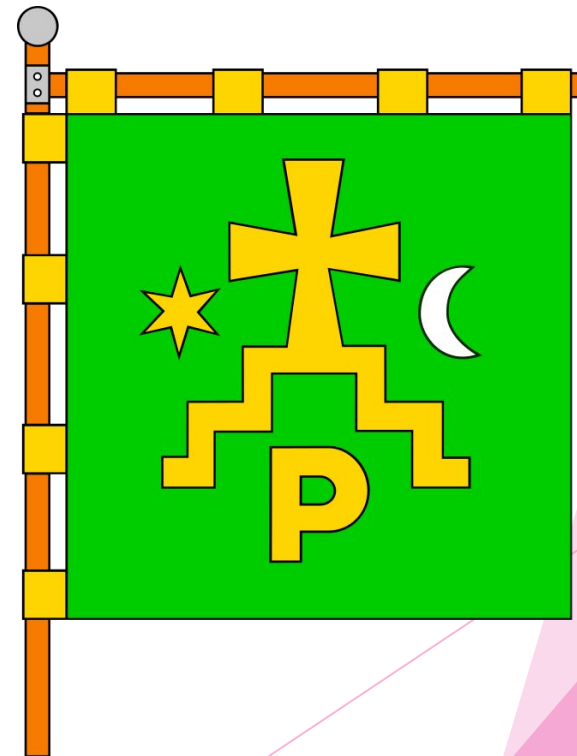

Romny was founded in 902.

Coat of arms

Flag

Many famous people lived or visited the city. T. Shevchenko visited Romny in 1843 and 1845. Famous actor M. Shchepkin also visited Romny.

Romny's places of interest

Churches

Ascension Church was built in XVIII-XIX centuries. In Soviet times the church was closed and the building was used for other purposes. The revival began in 1996.

Holy Spirit Cathedral is the oldest stone building in city Romny. It is located at the highest point of the city. This outstanding architectural monument in the Ukrainian Baroque style was created in 1738-46.

Monument to Taras Shevchenko

Monument to Taras Shevchenko in Romny is the world's first monument to the Great Kobzar. It was opened on October 27, 1918.

Shevchenko Recreation Park

Its total area is 11.3 hectares.

Romensky College.

Romensky College of the Sumy National Agrarian University is a higher educational institution.

WELCOME TO ROMNY

