

Safeguarding and developing folk traditions: local vs. global context

Questionnaire results:

Popular folklore genres (according to students) are:

Fairy tales – 75%

Legends – 45%

Myths – 35%

Epics – 25%

Proverbs – 15%

Questionnaire results:

The most famous folklore ensembles
(according to students) in Buryatia are:

Theater of folk music and dance «Zabava» –
50%

Student's folklore ensemble «Ulger» - 30%

People's e

IOV is a worldwide network of individuals and institutions working to preserve and protect all forms of folk art. It unites people from 150 countries.

The credentials:

2010 - UNESCO accredits IOV as a Consultant to the Intergovernmental Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Folk art five categories:

- Oral traditions and expressions including language;
- Performing arts;
- Social practices, rituals and festive events;
- Knowledge and practices concerning nature and the universe;
- Traditional craftsman

Mission:

- to preserve, protect and promote all forms of folk art and folk culture;
- to foster understanding and a appreciation of cultural diversity among all peoples.

The objectives:

- Identify and research all forms of folk and a tradition arts including dance, music, rituals, food ways, traditional craftsmanship;
- Increase awareness of the world's rich and diverse cultures through folkloric festivals, classes, seminars, symposia, exhibits, etc.;
- Present folk art in live performances, exhibitions, workshops and other public events.
- Create a supportive environment for the presentation of folk.
- Encourage intercultural dialogue.

V IOV WORLD CONGRESS «MUSICAL CREATIVITY AS A FACTOR OF INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUE DEVELOPMENT» (ULAN-UDE, 2012)

The
the
the

ding

VII INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF TRADITIONAL MUSIC «SOUNDS OF EURASIA»

ПРОЕКТ ВИКТОРА КИТОВА

V ВСЕМИРНЫЙ КОНГРЕСС МЕЖДУНАРОДНОЙ ОРГАНИЗАЦИИ ПО НАРОДНОМУ ТВОРЧЕСТВУ (IOV)

20-23 сентября 2012 года

РОССИЯ

БУРЯТИЯ

VII МЕЖДУНАРОДНЫЙ ФЕСТИВАЛЬ ТРАДИЦИОННОЙ МУЗЫКИ «ЗВУКИ ЕВРАЗИИ»

18-23 сентября 2012 года

ПРИГЛАШАЕМ В УЛАН-УДЭ

IOV WORLD CONGRESS

SOUNDS OF

EURASIA

Информация:
www.soundsof Eurasia.baikal.net
www.iov-world.com

The project initiator and implementer was an honored professor of our Institute Victor Kitov. IOV President for Burvattia.

Thank you!