A silver pen with gold accents lies diagonally across a dark, textured surface. To its right, the corner of a silver laptop is visible. The background is dark and moody, with a subtle light source creating a soft glow on the pen and laptop.

Entrepreneurship has traditionally been defined as the process of designing, launching and running a new business, which typically begins as a small business, such as a startup company, offering a product, process or service for sale or hire, and the people who do so are called «entrepreneurs».

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a desk. In the foreground, a dark grey or black smartphone lies on a dark blue or grey textured surface. To its right is a silver pen and a watch with a black face and a brown leather strap. A laptop is visible in the background, its screen partially lit. The overall lighting is soft and focused on the objects in the foreground.
