Mother's Day

NAME: HUSSIEN ABBAS
GROUP: 20LL1A

PLAN:

INTRODUCTION:

A mother is the person who can take the place of all others, but whose place no one can take. Mother's day is a celebration honoring the mother of the family. It is celebrated on various days in many countries.

HISTORY:

The modern holiday of mother's day was first celebrated in 1908, when Anna Jarvis held a memorial for her mother. Her campaign to make mother's day a recognized holiday in the united states began in 1905 the year of her mother's death

DATE:

Different countries celebrate mother's day on various days of the year, some in may and others in march. In the USA it is celebrated on the second sunday in may, While in Lebanon and most Arab countries is in march 21.

TRADITIONS

While celebrating mother's day world wide, traditions vary depending on the country. In Lebanon mother's day gifts are: flowers, cake, jewelry, and clothes. Also family can organize an outing for all members to a restaurant.

OPINIONS:

People have different opinions toward mother's day. Some are with and see it a good chance to appreciate their mother's effort, while others see that it is not important and we must take care by our moms all the days.

WITH MOTHER'S DAY:

A good mother feeds you, protects you , loves you, helps you connect with others and encourages you to become your best self. She is a hero which defends and protects you, provides intelligence and wisdom, and a morals model. Some times a word can create other's happiness, so a whole day will make her happy and forget her tiredness.

OTHER ASPECTS

Mother is the most precious gift for every person on the earth. The day doesn't matter to make mother happy, if people are available for their mothers then every day should be mother's day.

CONCLUSION:

Thank you, Mom... for the love, strength, and care for being my guardian and my guide on those sad days when I cried I'm proud of you because... you never gave up hope when the times were hard you kept going forward through it all, yard by yard you have never let others change who you are you have always shown me that you're my favorite star you move through the unknown with strength no matter how far the length
