

Victoria

Geography

- Area of the state Victoria is 228 km². The northern border of Victoria runs along the southern bank of the Murray River. The state borders on South Australia in the west and has the shortest land border in Australia with Tasmania. The official border between Victoria and Tasmania runs for 85 meters.

Climate

- Victoria is very small, but climate is very various. Located at the southern tip of the continent, Victoria has a cold and humid climate. The average temperature is from 30 degrees Celsius in summer to 15 degrees Celsius in winter.

Parliament

- Legislature in Victoria belongs to the parliament, consisting of two wards (палаты): the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council. 88 members of the Legislative Assembly are elected for a four-year term.

Facts

- Population of Victoria is 5 million people.
- 60.3% of population are Christians.
- The biggest city is Melbourne.

PRESENTATION IS OVER

THANK YOU FOR ATTENTION!