1. Правовой статус человека и гражданина

Правовой (юридический) статус личности – совокупность юридических норм, которые закрепляют права, свободы и обязанности личности (гражданина, иностранца, лица без гражданства) по отношению к обществу, государству и другим физическим лицам и одновременно права и обязанности последних в отношении данной личности.

1. Правовой статус человека и гражданина

Право (субъективное) - закрепленная за лицом
мера

возможного поведения, направленного на удовлетворение его интересов в конкретном правоотношении.

Свобода — это наличие возможности выбора варианта и реализации исхода события.

Юридическая обязанность - определенная законом
мера
должного поведения участника правоотношения – носителя этой обязанности.

2. Международные нормативно-правовые акты по правам человека

Всеобщая декларация прав человека - рекомендованный для всех стран-членов ООН документ, принятый 10 декабря 1948 года

10 декабря - День прав человека

Декларация имеет только статус рекомендации.

THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF Human Rights

PREAMBLE recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world.

PREAMBLE disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people.

PREAMBLE it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by law.

PREAMBLE it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations among nations.

PREAMBLE the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom.

PREAMBLE Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in co-operation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

PREAMBLE a common understanding of these rights and freedoms is of the greatest importance for the full realization of this pledge.

NOW THEREFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PREAMBLE proclaims this Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations, to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance, both among the peoples of Member States themselves and among the peoples of territories under their jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 1 — All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

ARTICLE 2 — Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

ARTICLE 3 — Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-Self-Governing territory, or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

ARTICLE 4 — Everyone has the right to life, liberty and the security of person.

ARTICLE 5 — No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

ARTICLE 6 — No one shall be subjected to torture, or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

ARTICLE 7 — Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

ARTICLE 8 — All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

ARTICLE 9 — Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

ARTICLE 10 — No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

ARTICLE 11 — Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

ARTICLE 12 — No one shall be held guilty of any criminal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a criminal offence under international or domestic law at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

ARTICLE 13 — No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

ARTICLE 14 — Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state.

ARTICLE 15 — Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

ARTICLE 16 — Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.

ARTICLE 17 — Everyone has the right to own property singly or in community with others and to be protected against arbitrary confiscation of his property.

ARTICLE 18 — Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

ARTICLE 19 — Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

ARTICLE 20 — Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.

ARTICLE 21 — Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.

ARTICLE 22 — Everyone has the right of equal access to public service in his country.

ARTICLE 23 — Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favourable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.

ARTICLE 24 — Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, to reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay.

ARTICLE 25 — Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.

ARTICLE 26 — Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.

ARTICLE 27 — Everyone has the right to education for the purpose of attaining the highest development of his human personality and for the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.

ARTICLE 28 — Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

ARTICLE 29 — Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.

ARTICLE 30 — Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.
