

Concept of Constitutional Law

Constitutional Law of RK is a body norms of law which regulates:

- ▶ Legal Status of Individuals

- ▶ Constitutional Principles of RK
 - Form of Governance;
 - Form of State Structure;
 - Form of Political Regime;
 - Basics of Political Structure;
 - Basics of Economic Structure.

- ▶ Legal Status of the State Organs
 - President;
 - Parliament;
 - Government;
 - Constitutional Council;
 - Judicial Bodies;
 - Organs of Local Administration and Self-Administration.

What is Constitution?

Constitution is the major source of Constitutional Law.

Constitution is the basic law of the state which has the supreme juridical force and regulates the most important social relations.

Functions:

- ▶ Establishing Function
- ▶ Organizational Function
- ▶ Stabilizing Function
- ▶ Programmatic Function

Features:

- ▶ Fundamental Character
- ▶ Supreme Juridical Force

Constitutional Basics of RK

- ▶ RK is a Sovereign State;
- ▶ RK is a Rule-of-Law State;
- ▶ RK is a Democratic State;
- ▶ RK is a Presidential Republic;
- ▶ RK is a Unitary State;
- ▶ RK is a Social State;
- ▶ RK is a Secular State.