Borodinskiy bread has unusual taste and smell. It is dark as grief. It is a witness of undying glory of Russian spirit. We remember those people who created this bread. Borodinskiy bread appeared thanks to great love of a man and a woman.

The story of love of general Alexander Tuchkov the fourth and his wife Margaret was “the love of the century”. They fell in love from the first look. But they had to wait the permission for their marriage 4 years. When they were married Margaret was 25, Alexander was 29.

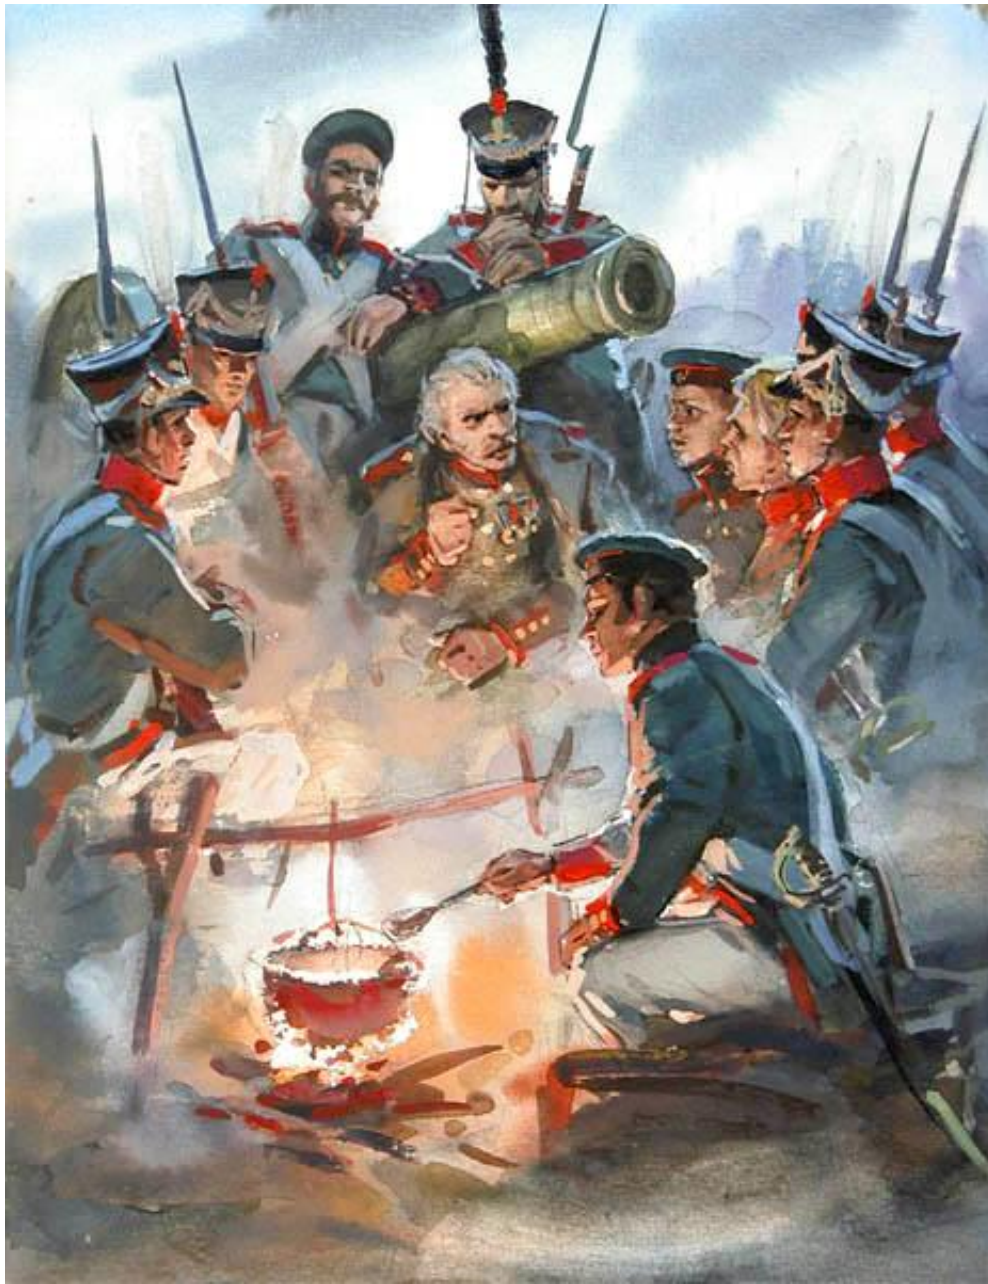

Margaret was from a famous family of Naryshkin and Volkonskiy. She had a brilliant education. Her first marriage was unhappy. But suddenly he appeared...

Alexander Tuchkov was the youngest of four brothers.
He was very honest and brave.

A bright sunburst in a blue sky with white clouds. The sunburst is centered in the upper left quadrant, with rays radiating outwards. The sky is a deep blue, and the clouds are white and fluffy. The text is overlaid on the sunburst and sky.

They were very happy to be together.
After their marriage Margaret and Alexander didn't part with each other.

She accompanied her husband everywhere. She treated wounded soldiers and slept under the open sky.

In 1811 their son Nikolenka was born. Margaret spent sleepless nights at her son's cradle.

Alexander and Margaret with their son wanted to settle far from the capital, but the war changed all their plans.

It happened during Borodinskoye Battle. Wounded Tuchkov fell down on the arms of his soldiers. They tried to save their general, but a cannon-ball killed them all.

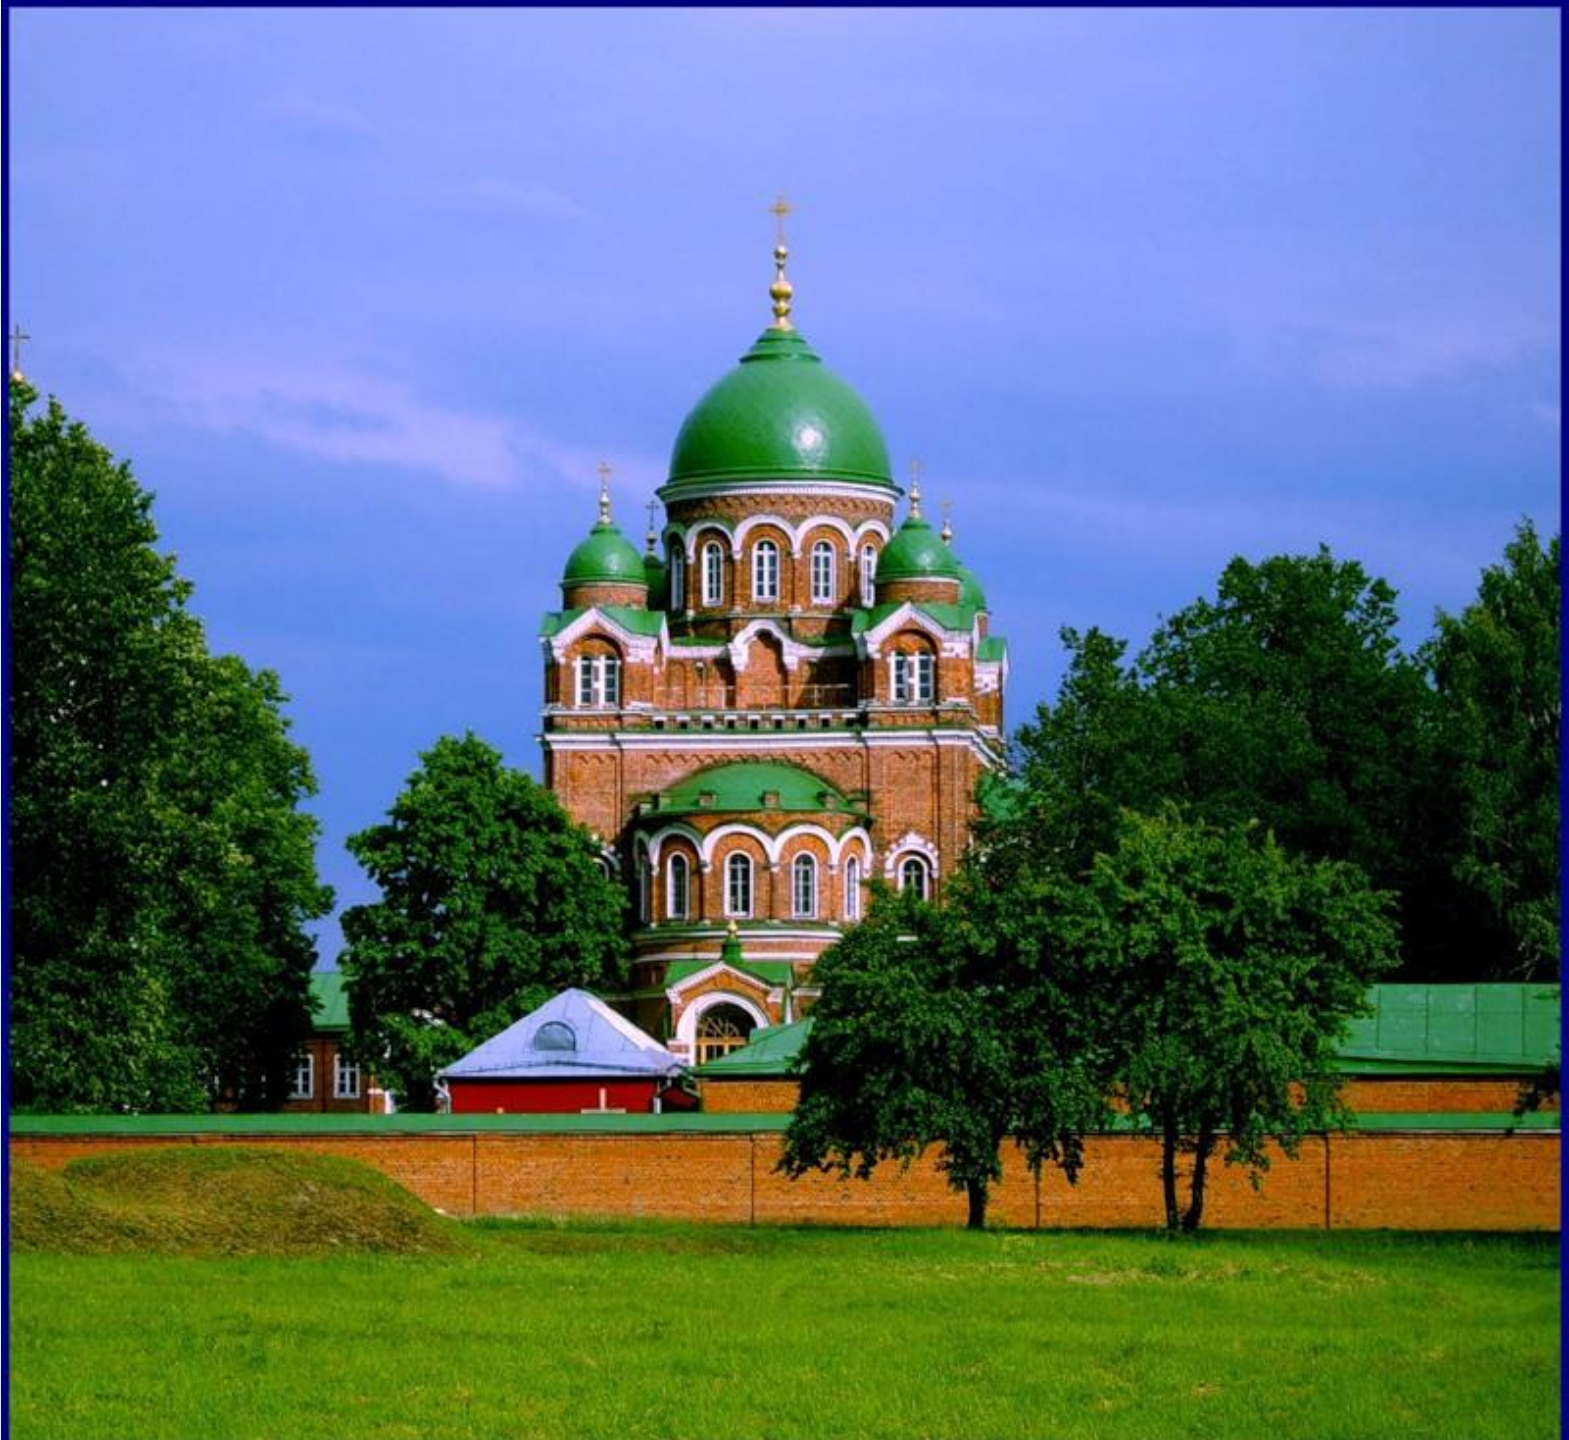

Margaret was looking for her husband several months. There were 20 thousands of dead soldiers in the field. She didn't find him.

Margaret decided to build a monument in honour of her husband and heroes of Borodinskoye Battle.

The first monument to the heroes of the war was built by Margaret. It was a temple of “Spas Nerukotvornyi”

She lost her son
In 1826.

Margaret took the veil

(постриглась в монахини) in 1838 and decided to settle in Borodino.

The widows of Russian soldiers baked bread inside the walls of the temple. This bread was called Borodinskyi. It reminds us about that time and people who dedicated their lives to Russia.

Holding the piece of this bread in your hand, pray for Russian princess Margaret Mihailovna Tuchkova. Remember her great love, faithfulness and courage.

Сжимая краюшку бородинского хлеба, помяните добром русскую княгиню Маргариту Михайловну Тучкову, вспомните о её великой любви, о верности и преданности, о мужестве и самопожертвовании.
