

-
- A colorful, stylized graphic of a handheld device, possibly a game controller or a small handheld computer. The device has a green top and bottom section, a blue vertical section on the left, and a pink and red horizontal section on the right. A dark blue screen is located in the center-right area, displaying a question. Below the screen are four white buttons. The device has a blue square with four screws on the top left and a yellow/orange section on the left side.
- Who knows the History of the Olympic Games Better?

- The history of the Olympic Games began in ...

776 BC

776 BC

47 BC

1703

145 AD

-
- Where were the ancient Olympic Games held ?
  - In Athens, Greece .

- How often were the Olympic Games held?

Every four (leap)
year.

5

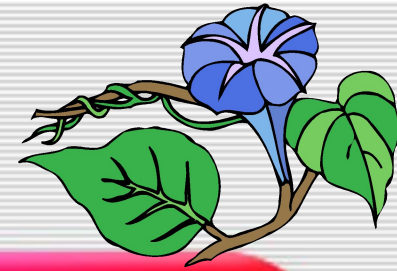

20

4

3

- What were sportsmen awarded an the Olympic Games first?
- Wreath from olive leaves

- What are the victors awarded at the Olympic Games now?
- medals: gold, silver and bronze

- Who suggested to reunite the world through sport again ?
- Baron Pierre de Coubertin .

A colorful, stylized graphic of a presentation board. The board has a green border on the left and bottom, and a pink and red border on the right. A blue square with four screws is in the top left. A yellow and orange vertical bar is on the left side. A pencil with a black body and a yellow eraser is pointing towards the text box. The text box is dark red with rounded corners and contains two bullet points.

- When and where were first Modern Olympic Games held ?

- In 1896. In Greece

When and where did the Olympic flag appear
?

In 1920. In
Antwerp, Belgium

- What do rings symbolize?

The union of the five continents.

• What is the motto of the Olympic Games?

Faster, higher. stronger.

Why were The Olympic Games not held in 1916, 1940 and 1944?

Because of the World War I and World War II.

- When did the first mascot appear ?
  - In 1972
at Munich Olympiad

- When did Russia join the Olympic movement?
  - In 1552

- When were first Winter Olympic games held?

In 1924

