Welcome

The Red Square

• Moscow Red Square is a definite must see. This place breathes with Russian history. The kings were coronated, and the Communist leaders got buried . The churches were built and demolished

The Kremlin

The Kremlin. The political, cultural and historical center of the country. The Alpha and Omega of Russia.

The Cathedral of Christ the Savior

- ◎ You've heard that Russia has changed - but to truly feel it you need to visit The Cathedral of Christ the Savior in Moscow.
- ◎ Built to celebrate the victory over Napoleon, it was cruelly destroyed by the Bolsheviks who replaced it with a swimming pool!

Manezhnaya Square

- This place is your one-stop travel hub. Located in the center of Moscow, Manezhnaya square links to Kremlin, Red Square, Alexander Garden lots of other Moscow sights!

Arbat

- ◎ This lovely street is the home of the free. Artists, performers, musicians, hippies - all of them come to Arbat.
- ◎ Here, they shine.

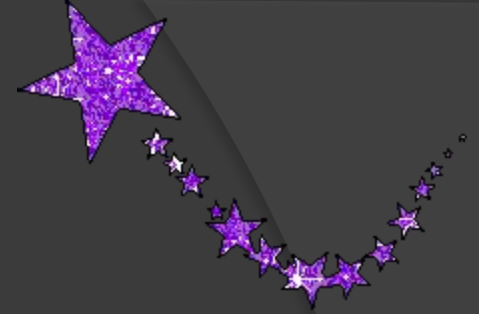

Gorky Park

- ⦿ This huge park was built in 1928. Its overall territory is one square kilometer! It used to be the biggest amusement park in Europe.

Park Pobedy

Park Pobedy, or "Victory Park", was opened in 1995 as a memorial of the Victory over Nazism.

- This beautiful, broad square pleases your eye with fountains, flower beds.

Ostankino TV Tower

Ostankino is one of the most famous TV towers in the world! Built in 1967, it's the tallest building in Moscow up until today.

Moscow Zoo

- ⦿ Moscow Zoo is a great place for a family visit. Bring your kids around, and show them some of the rarest animals on the planet!

Metro

- For the first time the idea of constructing the underground railroad in Moscow appeared at the beginning of the 20th century.

THANK you!
