

Some the most interesting places in the Great Britain

Teachers: Декатова Л.М.
Самсонова Н.Н.

Gothic Cathedral in York.

- The building of this great Cathedral lasted from XIII- XV centuries. We can find here all the features of the Gothic architecture.

Stonehenge

- This mysterious place is in England and it was built about 4.000 years ago. We don't know why it was built and what for. Scientists can't help us now days.

The famous viaduct in Scotland.

- It was built in 1901. The express was going along it. And only rich people could be in that train and were amazing the beauty of the lands.

Scotland

Cambridge University

- It is one of the famous and the oldest universities in the world. It was founded at the beginning of the XIII century.

Cambridge University

It was built in XI century by William the Conqueror

The fortress

Looking north east over the Silver Flowe from Craginaw in the Duneen hills with Corserine (just right of centre), and Carlin's Cairn (left of centre) on the Rhinns of Kells ridge - winter. The loch in the foreground is Long Loch of the Duneen.

- Go to the Great Britain and have a great pleasure watching the beautiful places.

Read some more information in Wikipedia.