Misunderstanding...

Children
get upset,
when their parents
don't understand
them ...

Strictness

Parents often get mad with their children, because children disobey them.

Children
cry when their parents
let them
down.

They don't listen to me...

Violence...

But what about friendship, trust, love and respect?

But I need attention too!!!

I am a child.

I need your care and love.

I want you to play with me!

I expect you to pay attention to me.

Trust...

Parents should live in harmony
with their children

If your children refuse to listen to you, try to understand them

All parents should pay attention to their children

Your family
is all that you have in
your own life

A happy and friendly family is excellent !

Thank you for your attention!!!
