

My grandfather

He served a driver on the armored car .
Twice he took part in the parade on Red Square honored to the Great Victory. He continued his working carrier as a tractor driver in the collective farm.

My grandmother

My grandmother was born in the family of the collective farmer. She finished the agricultural college in Kungur and worked in the fields. Later she has got her own fruit garden. Now she has a rest.

My father

His motto: “If you want to be the waiter, you must be the best waiter in the world”.

My father graduated school with a gold medal.

He was a top student in the Perm State University.

He was a heroic soldier.

Now my father is a brilliant inspector.

As for me he is the best father in the world.

My mother is a tutor

It's me

Conclusion

I have achieved the aim of my work.

I've designed the electronic album "Family Tree".

I found the example of the scheme of my family tree.

I collected the information about my relatives.

I have

- improved my English.
- learned how to make slides.
- known how to do the project.
- made a genealogical tree of my family.

English texts can be used as cards at the lessons.

The electronic album "Family Tree" will be added by my children and they will pass it from one generation to another.
