

A vibrant, stylized illustration of an underwater world. The background is a deep blue, representing the water. In the foreground, there are several colorful fish with yellow and orange stripes. To the left, there are green seaweed-like plants and red coral. In the center, there are more green plants and a yellow starfish. On the right, there are two large, yellow fish with orange stripes. The overall style is simple and child-friendly, with bold outlines and bright colors.
