

Nevsky prospect – the main street of St.
Petersburg,
one of the most famous streets in Russia and the world

Nevsky Prospekt stretches for 4,5 (four and a half) kilometers from the Admiralty to the Alexander Nevsky Lavra

Its present name of Nevskiy prospect received in 1781.
It bears the name of the national hero Prince Alexander Nevsky.

Nevsky Prospekt crosses the Fontanka (This is the Anichkov bridge), crosses the Moika (This is the Green bridge) and crosses the Griboyedov canal (This is the Kazansky bridge).

Some of the sights of Nevsky prospect

The Kazan Cathedral - one of the largest churches of St. Petersburg

The building company «Zinger» (also known as the "House of books") - a monument of architecture, one of the most beautiful buildings of Saint-Petersburg

«Catherine's garden»

In the center of the garden in front of the Alexandrinsky theater is the monument to Catherine II.

National library of Russia

(former Imperial public library) —one of the first public libraries in Eastern Europe.

The obelisk “For Hero-City Leningrad” is located on Vosstaniya square near the Moscow railway station.

Nevsky Prospekt is beautiful by day and night!

Welcome to the walk !
