direction

What will we have in the future?

In the future we'll have tiny computers in our clothes and in watches and jewellery.

How will computers help us?

They'll help us learn, give us directions to places and pay for things.

Will we have a computer inside us?

Yes, we will. We'll even have a computer inside us.

Research shows that games will be much more exciting.

In the future you'll use only a joystick.

The characters in the game will do what you say.

Your computer won't film you so you won't be in the game.
