

WASHINGTON

- Washington is the capital of the United States.
- It was founded in 1790.
- Its area is 177 square kilometres.
- Its population is 601 723 people.

- White house

It is The official residence of the State's President. It is a big white house in the center of the big beautiful park.

- The Smith's Institute

It is a scientific and educational institute in Washington. It is complex of museums.

The institute was founded on 1846 by the act of the US Congress.

- National Gallery

It is a complex of different monuments and museums in the historic center of Washington. All the space of the National Alley is divided into zones in which the main monuments are located.

•The Statue of Liberty

Its full name - Freedom, reviewing the world. It is a colossal sculpture on Liberty Island, was opened in 1886. Its height is 93 meters.

