

THE WORLD OF WORK

“People forget how fast you did a job-but they remember how well you did it.”

Howard Newton.

A. acrobat, actor/actress, accountant, architect, athlete, artist, author, auto mechanic, announcer, archeologist, astronaut

B. barber, baker, banker, butcher, bookkeeper, bus driver, builder, businessman/woman, biologist, broadcaster, bodyguard, babysitter,

C. carpenter, clerk, captain, correspondent, coach, computer programmer, cook/chef, composer, conductor, cowboy, contractor, cartoonist, critic, chemist, clown, construction worker

D. dancer, dentist, decorator, detective, dressmaker, director, diplomat, doctor, designer, deejay (d.j.), doorman

E. editor, engineer, educator, electrician, ecologist, entertainer, explorer, economist, exhibitor

F. fireman, farmer, florist, filmmaker, factory worker, flight attendant, fisherman

G. gardener, general, guide, garbage man, geologist, governor, geographer, greengrocer, gas station attendant, genealogist

H. hairdresser, host/hostess, hotel manager, housekeeper, humorist, historian, homemaker, headmaster, highwayman, horticulturist, hunter

I. inventor, industrialist, interpreter, inspector, insurance agent, illustrator, instructor, ironmonger

J. jeweler, judge, jockey, jack-of-all-trades, journalist

K. kindergarten teacher, king, knight, keyboardist

L. lawyer, librarian, lab technician, lumberjack, lifeguard, locksmith, laundress, lady-in-waiting, lecturer, linguist, longshoreman;

M. manager, mayor, marketer, mountain climber, mechanic, mathematician, model, musician, minister, milkman, magician, miner,

N. nurse, novelist, newsreader, naturalist,

O. office worker, oceanographer, oculist, operator,

P. painter, pilot, playwright, physical therapist, pharmacist, postman, physicist, poet, psychologist, photographer, politician, police officer, producer, president, professor, prime minister, printer, philosopher

Q. queen, quiz show maker

R. reporter, repairman, real estate agent, receptionist, rabbi, referee, radiologist, rock star, rocket scientist

S. sailor, salesman/saleswoman, secretary, soldier, sculptor, shoemaker, singer, surgeon, security guard, sociologist, senator, steward

T. teacher, typist, taxi driver, translator, travel agent, thief, technician, teller, taxman, timekeeper,

U. umpire, undertaker, upholsterer, usher

V. veterinarian, vicar, violinist, ventriloquist, vocalist

W. writer, watchmaker, weightlifter, weatherman, welder, waiter/waitress, warrior, wood worker,

X. x-ray technician, xylophonist

Y. yoga instructor
Z. zoologist

Word Formation

- Suffixes

-ar	-er	-or	-ess	-ist	-eer	-cian
Beggar	farmer	doctor	actress	therapist	engineer	beautician

Composition

-man (woman)	-maker	-player	-worker	-smith
Mailman	shoemaker	chess-player	iron-worker	blacksmith

The results of a survey among British Teenagers

Factors which are important	Male %	Female %
Job satisfaction	50	66
Money	29	13
Friendly atmosphere	7	13
Good conditions	5	6
Training	3	3
Travel	1	2

The results of a survey among my schoolmates

Factors which are taken into account	Boys	Girls
Job satisfaction	30	35
Money	45	40
Promotional prospects	15	4
Personal qualities and abilities	5	8
Social importance	4	7
Travel	2	1
The influence of other people	1	2

	In Britain	In the USA	In Russia
The worst paid job $	A nurse in a hospital A nuclear scientist	Physical therapist	A doctor
	A shop assistant	Veterinary technologists	A teacher
		Fitness trainers
		Preschool teacher
		Home health aides
Get a good salary $$	A dentist	Environmental science	A bank clerk
	A school teacher	Self-enrichment education teacher	A shop assistant
	A worker in a factory	Respiratory therapist	A worker in a factory
A highly paid job $$$	A bank manager	Network systems and communications analysts	A miner in a coalmine
	A professional footballer	Computer engineer	Bank administrators
	A nuclear scientist	Information systems managers	A nuclear scientist