A decorative Mother's Day card is shown, featuring a white background with a colorful floral border in the top-left corner. The border consists of intricate, swirling floral motifs in shades of blue, yellow, red, and green. The card is surrounded by fresh flowers: purple lilies at the top, yellow and white lilies at the bottom, and a red thistle-like flower at the bottom right. The card is placed on a light-colored, textured surface.
