William Shakespeare
(1564-1616)

William Shakespeare (26 April 1564 (baptised) – 23 April 1616) was an English poet and playwright, widely regarded as the greatest writer in the English language and the world's pre-eminent dramatist. He is often called England's national poet and the "Bard of Avon". His extant works, including some collaborations, consist of about 38 plays, 154 sonnets, two long narrative poems, two epitaphs on a man named John Combe, one epitaph on Elias James, and several other poems. His plays have been translated into every major living language and are performed more often than those of any other playwright.

A poem about Shakespeare by an unknown author

Плебея сын создал, взо́дя на трон,
Мир целый, им и правит, знает он
Пружины тайные людского рода, -
Как тронуть жалостью сердца народа,
Как вызвать радость или гнев в душе,
Умеет он в божественном огне
Сделать заново и нас самих.

About the sonnets of Shakespeare

They say, that new times are new songs. It is so. But there are works, which are immortal. Shakespeare's sonnets apply to such works. They were read, are being read and will be read, because they are exciting and call to life. Sonnets of Shakespeare found the greatest glory from Russian readers in the translation of S. Marshak. He was awarded Stalin prize for this
