Handwriting practice for the Hebrew letter Het (ח). The image shows the letter written in a large, bold, cursive style on a set of three horizontal lines (top solid, middle dashed, bottom solid). The letter is composed of two main strokes: a large, sweeping curve that starts at the bottom left, goes up and over the top line, and then curves back down to the bottom line, and a second, smaller curve that starts at the bottom line, goes up and over the middle dashed line, and then curves back down to the bottom line. Below the bottom solid line, there are two blue squares marking the starting points of the two strokes.
