

Present Simple

I like like to draw.

He likes likes to read.

They like like to dance.

I
You
We They

like □

He

She

likes □

It

1. I like to jump.
2. My mother likes to draw.
3. My brother and father like to go to the park.
4. My sister and me like to skip.
5. You like to read books.
6. My grandfather likes to watch TV.
7. My dog likes to run.

General questions

Do you like_ to draw?

Yes, I do.

Does he like_ to read?

Yes, he does.

Do they like_ to dance?

Yes, they do.

I

He

Do

You like ...?

Does

She

like ...?

We

They

It

1. Do you like to jump?
2. Does your mother like to draw?
3. Do your brother and father like to go to the park?
4. Do your sister and you like to skip?
6. Does your grandfather like to watch TV?
7. Does your dog like to run?

Negative sentences.

I don't like _ to read.

He doesn't like _ to dance.

They don't like _ to draw.

I
You don't like
We
They

He
She doesn't like
It

1. I don't like to jump.
2. My mother doesn't like to draw.
3. My brothers don't like to go to the park.
4. My sister and me don't like to skip.
5. You don't like to read books.
6. My grandfather doesn't like to watch TV.
7. My dog doesn't like to run.

