InterNet

Completed the presentation: Zelenenkaia Christina
Checked the work of: Shevlyakova Alla

Table of contents
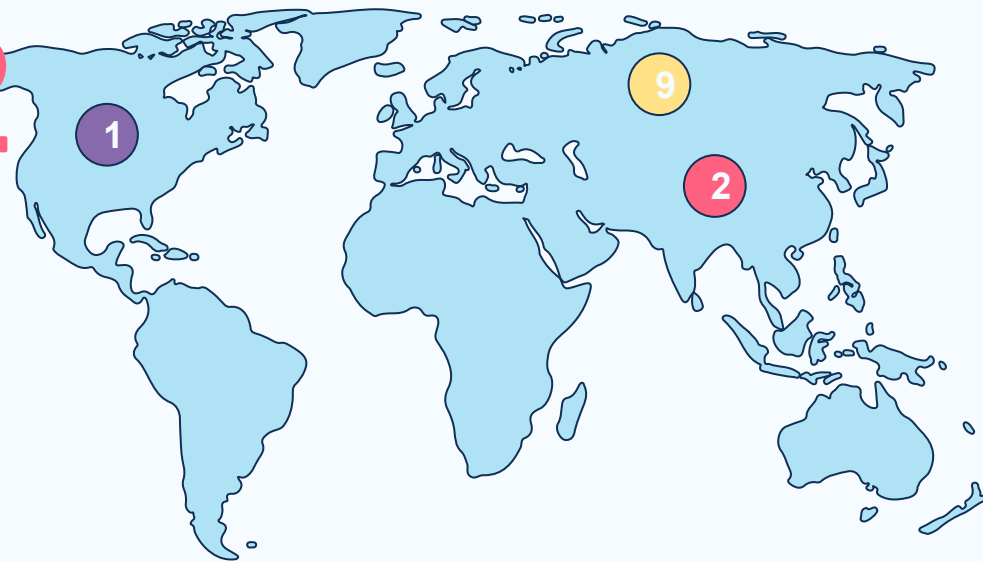

01
History of the Internet

- The internet was first developed in the 1960s by the United States Department of Defense as a way to connect their computer systems and share information.
- In the 1970s, email was invented, making communication between individuals faster and easier.

Languages on the Internet

02

English

The predominant language of the Internet is English

Chinese

The second largest number of native speakers is Chinese

Russian

Russian takes the 9th place

03 Advantages of the Internet

Improved communication

The internet allows individuals to communicate with others all around the world through email, social media, and video conferencing

Access to information

The internet provides access to vast amounts of information on almost any topic

Online shopping

The internet makes it easy to shop for goods and services from the comfort of your own home

04 Disadvantages of the Internet

Privacy concerns

Personal information shared online may be vulnerable to hacking and identity theft

Addiction

Some individuals may become addicted to the internet and spend excessive amounts of time online

Thanks!

Do you have any questions?
zelenenkaia_kika@mail.ru
+79494098022