NEWS FOR EVERYONE

Russians are great readers of newspapers and magazines. Today Russia has about 33,000 newspapers and magazines. There are national as well as local daily newspapers. The Russian daily, PRAVDA, used to be the most important quality newspaper. In the last ten years the daily, IZVESTIA, has become the main newspaper in cultural, academic and business circles and *MOSCOVSKY KOMSOMOLET*s is read by a wide range of people. However, the most popular Russian newspaper is not a daily but a weekly paper, ARGUMENTY I FACTY. Another weekly newspaper, THE MOSCOW NEWS, is available in other languages as well as in Russian.

Some people read newspapers for entertainment; others are interested in political and sports news. There are special edition for women, young people, children, businessmen.

Young people often prefer magazines to newspapers. Teen magazines such as COOL, COOL GIRL, BRAVO TEEN'S and MOLOTOK are very popular, although they are criticised by parents. These magazines provide gossip about film stars and pop stars and give information about parties, concerts, discos and clubs. They also have articles about latest trends in fashion, music and travel.

1. There are only national daily newspapers.
2. PRAVDA used to be the most important quality newspaper.
3. MOLOTOK is aimed at young people.
4. There aren't special editions for women.
5. THE MOSCOW NEWS is available in different languages.
6. Young people read newspapers very often.
7. Parents agree that magazines Cool, BRAVO and MOLOTOK are useful for their children.
8. In teen's magazines there are many articles about fashion, travel and music.

Read the opinions of some Russian teenagers about teen magazines. Do you agree with them? Give reasons.

1. I like Bravo mostly because of its pictures, comic strips and articles about animals.

2. I can't imagine my life without Cool Girl. It tells you everything you need to know about looking cool.

3. I like to read Teens, especially all the gossip about pop stars and Russian singers.

4. I think Molotok is great! It's got lots of advice for teenagers. There are some questions that I can't ask my parents, so I look for answers in Molotok.

5. All these magazines like Teens, Bravo and Molotok are full of trash. Normal teenagers don't read them.

TV is very important thing in our life. We can say that TV is our eyes because TV helps us to know more about the world, about the others counties, about the events that happened in the world. TV even helps you to know more about yourself.
